

Town Officials Given Vote Of Appreciation

Cut Township Costs
Pay Old Tax Warrants;
Town On Cash Basis

Wheeling electors attending the town meeting of that township held at the Arlington Heights municipal building Tuesday afternoon expressed their pleasure over the manner in which the town board and officers had handled their affairs by passing a resolution of appreciation for their efforts and accomplishments during the past year.

John Allen, who acted as moderator, praised the official reports on economy measures that had been placed in effect and complimented the town on its improved financial condition, all of which had become possible, stated Mr. Allen, by the cooperative spirit on the part of the individual officials. The resolution read as follows:

"Be it resolved by the electors of Wheeling township, assembled in annual town meeting, this 2nd day of April, 1940, that the township herewith recognizes the efficient services of the township officers and the town board and their accomplishments of the past year that have brought about economy measures, conserved assets of the town and have placed the financial affairs of the township on a sound business basis."

A 1940 tax levy amounting to $8,900, was authorized by a unanimous vote of those present.

Reduce Relief Costs
Relief in Wheeling township during the past year cost a total of $27,000. Eleven thousand dollars of that money came from the local tax payers. The remaining $16,000 came from the state government, which in turn got its money from the 3% sales tax paid by citizens here and everywhere else in the state.

The reduction in relief in the township is $3,000 under last year. The cost of administration has been cut in half.

Gilbert J. Klehm who is relief supervisor in Wheeling township is publishing in this issue a comprehensive relief report. It clearly shows where, for what purposes the relief money of the township was expended. No names are mentioned in the report but the amount expended for food, rent, fuel and clothing is clearly shown in dollars and cents. It is interesting to note that practically 70% of the relief money goes for food while 17% is needed for rent. Fuel is third with 9%. It costs as much to keep the relief families in good physical condition with gas, light and water as it does to pay the doctor to get them well after they are taken ill. Both accounts were in the neighborhood of $800.

Overhead cost of administering the relief was only $1,668, which is practically half of the previous year. The greater part of that savings is in the salaries paid to office employees, which amounted to about $600 for each of the two engaged in that work. Office rent is $20 a month.

Mrs. Theo. Mayer returned Monday to her home in Berkeley, Calif. She has been visiting her brother, Mr. R. Rizzi and family and other relatives since she came east to see her mother in her last illness.

New Arlington Alley Owner Has Some New Ideas

Operation of Cocktail Bar Will Be Up To Bowlers Themselves

Is a cocktail bar a necessary adjunct to a bowling alley? Pete Varnak, who recently purchased the Harris & Oltrogge recreation building at Arlington Heights, does not intend to answer that question himself. He is going to leave it up to the bowlers themselves.

Mr. Varnak will install a number of conveniences in the building and there will hardly be room for a cocktail bar. However, if the bowlers want a bar it can be arranged.

The new owner realizes that Arlington Heights has less bowling leagues than any other town in this vicinity. The sport is not popular in Arlington Heights. There is no church league, or other similar groups. Pete puts part of the blame on the crowded conditions at the alleys. There is little accommodation for the ladies nor are there dressing or locker rooms.

The convenience of the bowlers is going to be the first thought of Mr. Varnak. The operation of a bar is secondary. The new owner has title to the building, but as yet has no control of the alleys or the present bar. His acquisition of either of these is problematical. However reports of the enlarging of the building are without foundation. He intends to first see for himself how big a demand exists for a modern bowling alley in Arlington Heights and no extensive building plan will be attempted the coming summer.

"What's The Use" Says Chief Jahn

There is no member of the Arlington Heights fire department who is more conscientious than Chief Jahn. He personally answers all prairie fire alarms before calling out the department, thereby saving the village between $25 and $35 on such calls. Wednesday afternoon a prairie fire at the rear of the old Kennicot property at the north end of Vail was reported to him. He went to the scene and was doing a good job extinguishing the blaze with a broom when the entire fire department with both apparatus appeared on the scene in answer to a fire call phoned by an excited neighbor.

"What's the use," says the fire chief.

Attend Postmaster Convention At Belleville

Mrs. Virginia Dodge, Arlington Heights postmaster, is attending the annual state postmasters' convention at Belleville this week.

Owing to illness of Miss Schmidt, assistant postmaster at Palatine, Wm. Kehe, Jr., was unable to attend this year.

soon as the present taxes are collected. Outstanding delinquent tax warrants amount to only $2,333.86. Supervisor Klehm stated that he expected to retire during the present year practically all of such warrants.

Road and Bridge Funds
The road and bridge funds have not passed through the hectic experience of the town funds and there have been funds to pay the bills of the current years. No tax warrants have been issued during the past year for road purposes and there was $647 on hand April 1. Road Commissioner Cloice Weider has done an excellent job in conserving his funds and accomplishing the most possible on his roads.

As a working road commissioner he has been able to save the township considerable money. The report of his department is self explanatory.

Mr. Weider saved $1,000 in customary charges for hauling stone, by operating the town's own truck. That saving is sufficient to pay for the truck for the year.

Purchases Truck and Land
Included in the expenditures of the road and bridge account are several charges that have become capital assets. A contract was entered into for the rental-purchase of a model A Ford six-wheel dump truck on which a total of $440 has been paid. After making a final payment of $145 on June 1, 1940, the truck will become the property of the township.

The same procedure is being followed in the purchase of the ground on which the township garage is located. An addition to original building costing $496.16 has been erected and paid for. This building gives the township machinery storage 40x40.

A monthly rental of $10 a month is being paid for an acre of ground. When the rental payments amount to $395, the town will own the tract.

Increase in Assets
The report of E. F. Laurin, township auditor, places the increase in assets for the year: town fund, $2,099.04; road and bridge fund $1,660.00.

Townships Pass Tax Levies

Maine and Schaumburg townships are the only ones in northwestern Cook county that did not levy taxes for township or relief purposes. Maine township still has a sufficient nest egg to cover all probable expenses. Supervisor Koehler refuses relief to every able bodied man unless he works it out for one of the taxing bodies.

Old time farmers in Schaumburg township can understand why the township is again able to omit the levying of a relief or a town tax, but some of the new farm owners from Chicagoland can not understand how it is done. The newcomers expressed their surprise at the annual town meeting Tuesday afternoon. After hearing the financial reports of Supervisor Kingstom and other business transacted at the meeting they had a lot more respect for the business sagacity of the old time farmers, who can not only make their farms pay, but know how to keep taxes down.

"We have over $5,000 in town funds," stated Mr. Pfingsten, "We only expended $150 for relief last year. Why levy unnecessary taxes."

Elk Grove township levies a three mill relief tax, but the needs are so small that the entire relief costs must be assumed by the township. The tax levies of Northwest townships are:

Talent Wanted For Legion Show

Try-outs For Home
Talent Production April
5-6, At Legion Home

Announcement has been made by Commander Elmer Crane that the Home Talent Show, which has become an annual project of the Merle Guild Post No. 208 American Legion, will be presented April 19-20 in the high school auditorium.

This annual entertainment project, which has proved so popular with local audiences for the past few years, will again be produced under the direction of Miss Vivian Griffith, who has written and arranged the continuity and dialogue for the shows in previous years.

According to Miss Griffith, an entirely new script will be used presenting new features and different character parts. In addition to an unusual variety program, a "tribble" minstrel show and a "year-wrenching" "meller drama" produced with hero, heroine, villain and sound effects is planned.

As in previous years, all local talent is invited to try-out for places on the program. Try-outs will be held at the Legion Home on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 5 and 6, beginning at 7:30 p. m. and anyone interested in joining the cast should report to Miss Griffith at this time, or for further information, call Arlington Heights 485.

It is the desire of the Merle Guild Post to make this year's show the biggest and best yet produced, with the nucleus of the show composed of strictly local talent from Arlington Heights. However, many specialty acts from other communities have already indicated their intention to join the cast and all others are cordially invited.

The show is being produced as a local project under the sponsorship and direction of the Merle Guild Post. George Palmer is general chairman. Ticket sales are in charge of Paul Carroll. "Les" Griffith is in charge of publicity.

Sportsmen To Hold Smelt Fry To Honor Rev. H. A. Kossack

Northwest Towns Sportsmen's club is holding a smelt fry in honor of the Rev. H. A. Kossack who retired Sunday as pastor of the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church. The farewell party will be held this Friday evening at 7 o'clock, at the dining hall one block east of the intersection of Arlington Heights and Higgins roads. It is understood that the men friends of the pastor are invited to attend.

Firemen's Dance

Have you purchased your ticket for the coming firemen's dance? The date is May 4th. The place is the Arlington Heights field house. Arlington Heights firemen are willing to go all the way for any family in town. A cooperative spirit will mean a sell-out.

Autoist Killed Near Arlington; Failed To Keep On Own Side

A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury in the death of Ernest Laws, 42, of Rockford, in a collision on Higgins rd., a mile east of Arlington Heights rd. Lawson collided head on with a truck and trailer of a transfer company at 10 o'clock Sunday morning when he failed to remain in his own lane of traffic. He succumbed almost immediately.

Lawson, a solicitor for a Rockford transfer company, was returning to his home, according to an investigation held at the Lauterburg and Oehler undertaking parlors in Arlington Heights, Monday morning. As he approached a transfer truck, driven by Arthur Ceynova, he gradually edged into the truck's lane of traffic. Ceynova blew his horn, applied his brakes and finally turned into the opposite lane to avoid hitting him. Lawson's car also turned back and the two vehicles came together about the time when Ceynova had stopped his truck. He was exonerated at the inquest of any blame in Lawson's death.

There were no witnesses to the accident, but investigation by the county highway police appeared to establish his account of the accident. Ceynova is employed by Werner Transportation at New Lisbon, Wisconsin.

Sixty Lions Listen In On Sales Meeting

Find Program Is Instructive and Entertaining

The first of a series of five sales meetings sponsored by Arlington Heights National Bank was held Tuesday evening following the regular dinner of the Lions club, whose members set-in on an instructive, interesting and entertaining evening.

The script used by the speakers and demonstrators was prepared by the Bankers' Monthly. The "cast" were local business men. The audience of sixty entered into the purpose of the evening and all were invited to return for the second meeting which will be held in the hall above the National Bank next Tuesday.

Salespeople To Analyze Themselves
At the second of the sales study meetings being held in the local community development program, businessmen and their salespeople will consider the subject, "What customers like in the sales person."

The title of the first talk is, "Work For The Customer As Well as Your Employer."

As in the first meeting, and as in all other meetings to follow, satisfaction to the customer is the keynote of all of the studies. Several specific suggestions as to how to serve customers better will be made.

To drive these points home, a little playlet entitled, "Selling Shoes To Please The Customer," will be put on.

This will be followed by a second talk entitled, "Make Yourself An Expert." This talk is based on the idea that salespeople must know everything a customer might want to know about any product offered for sale. Certainly the customer cannot be helped with information unless the clerk has that information in his mind.

This will be followed by a second demonstration entitled, "The Lazy Salesman and the Intelligent Salesman." This will dramatize what happens when the salesman does not know as much as the customer wishes to buy; and then it will be shown what happens when the salesman knows everything he needs to know.

Speakers at next Tuesday's meeting will be C. M. Behrens, Harry Greinke, W. C. Hartman, Stuart R. Paddock, Florence Harth and F. Johnson.

Mt. Prospect Scouts Achieve First Aid Honors

First aid teams from Troop 23 sponsored by the Mount Prospect Post The American Legion, Russell Smith, scoutmaster and Troop 15 sponsored by the Lincoln School P. T. A. of Niles Center, S. A. Stenstrom, Scoutmaster, participated in the Sectional First Aid meet of the Region Seven Midwest First Aid program last Friday evening at the Haddon school in Evanston.

The team from Troop 23 earned an "A" rating and will participate in the Regional First Aid meet to be held at the Stevens Hotel on April 13 and the team from Troop 15 earned a "B" rating.

Twelve teams represented the North Shore Area Council with headquarters at Highland Park, Evanston council, Oak Park Area Council and Northwest Suburban Council participated in this Sectional meet.

Village Dads Will Meet To Talk Finances

Police Doing Good Job In Collection Of Business Licenses

The financial condition of Arlington Heights is not as rosy as members of the village board could wish and a special session of that body will be held Monday night to talk over what's to be done about it. Mayor Flentje presented to the individual board members Monday evening estimated figures of the obligations that face the board today and what will accrue within the next few months. The figures were rather startling and the board will talk them over.

Police collection of business licenses has brought desired results. Fifty-nine collections have been made, which has netted the village $620. Fine receipts have amounted to $169 since last report.

A one way radio tuned to the county station has been installed in the police car.

Bills and payroll approved Monday night totaled $1588.49.

While discussing ways to cut expenses, Mayor Flentje reported that nearly a thousand dollars a year could be saved by turning off street lights at one o'clock.

Appointment of the members of the zoning board was delayed until the complete list could be announced. One of the proposed members is unable to accept the appointment and another must be secured.

It will cost over $400 to repair the present street truck. A new truck would only cost twice that amount with a possibility of a good allowance for the old one. The aldermen decided to delay purchase of a new truck until fall, making as few repairs as necessary.

Routine reports comprised other business brought before the board that evening.

House to House Census Survey In Progress

Chicago Office
Refuses To Release
Names of Workers

The census taker will be knocking on your door at any time. Enumerators started out on their jobs Tuesday and found it slow and tedious. In the early announcements of the census, the highups asked the cooperation of the general public in order that the work could be completed as quickly and as easily as possible.

This paper published several weeks ago the list of questions that would be asked of the head of each family. Since that time, other stories have been published, but the district office of the census bureau, located at 5306 Lawrence ave., Chicago, apparently does not intend to cooperate with the local press.

The Chicago office of the U. S. census bureau assured the Paddock Publications that Mr. Klonowski of the district office would release for publication the names of enumerators and the towns in which they are expected to work. Assurances were also given that local enumerators would be assigned to other towns than the one in which they reside. Such is not entirely the case. An Arlington Heights resident started her work in her home town Tuesday.

When the latter fact was brought to the attention of the district supervisor, he was unwilling to admit it. He has not kept his promise to furnish the Herald with a full list of those who will work in Arlington Heights and neighboring communities.

Complaints have been received in the Herald office from people who say that they prefer to tell their private affairs to an outsider rather than to one of their neighbors.

It appears that the "cooperate" slogan refers to the public and not to the census bureau.

As a citizen the householder must answer all questions put to him. They do it that way in countries under dictatorships.

Bonfires Dangerous And Costly Says Fire Chief

Richard Jahn, Arlington Heights fire chief knows that April can not be a closed month for bonfires, but he does hope that people who burn leaves and rubbish, use the utmost discretion in lighting such fires.

If it is a windy day, wait until tomorrow.

Never leave the bonfire unattended.

If the public obeys these two rules, they will not endanger the property of others, and save the village unnecessary expenditures.

If the public does not obey them, the only recourse is for the village to charge the property owner on which fire is started the fee that is paid to the firemen, which is always $25 or more.

Heavy Vote Expected at Primaries Next Tuesday

Republicans and Democrats Have Big Contests

With the most hotly contested primary battle in many years drawing to a close, a near record vote in both parties is forecast for the big election next Tuesday.

The battle in both camps is roaring to a finish with workers for all candidates bending every possible effort to put their candidates over.

The Green and Lyons camps have waged a great battle. Richard Lyons, of Libertyville, has the backing of Cook County Republican organization and is endorsed by the majority of the local leaders, which according to Wm. Busse, his state manager, will put him over. Green has built up a volunteer organization throughout the state and according to polls being taken in Chicago is riding on a popularity wave that has become a real threat to Lyons.

In the senatorship race, Ralph Church, who is on the Lyons ticket has done some great work as a member of Congress from the tenth district, which will no doubt give him a big vote. Having established a record of never missing a session of Congress he spends the week-ends in Washington, returning to Illinois for the week-end. He is depending largely on volunteer workers.

Brooks, opponent of Church is an ardent campaigner who has many friends.

There are many candidates on the Republican ticket in which the residents of the country towns have little interest, but there are a few who directly serve the country towns and who deserve recognition at the primaries.

Among these are Mrs. Van der Vries, and Arthur Sprague, candidates for state representative, and James Moreland, candidate for Congress. All of these depend on the votes of the northwest towns.

The candidates for the county offices are looking to the large Chicago vote for success and it does not make much difference to them what the voters in the northwest towns do.

There is one other candidate who should not be overlooked. Voters will elect their delegates to the national conventions. The name of Wm. Busse, of Mt. Prospect, heads the candidates for the Republican convention. All Republicans of the Northwest towns should remember to mark the cross before Mr. Busse's name.

In the democratic camp the battle is even hotter than on the G. O. P. side of the fence.

The result looks very much like a desperate photo finish battle down the home stretch with the powerful Cook county machine showing the "harmony" candidates under the wire, the winner by a nose.

Down state the so-called insurgent ticket of Stelle and Adamowski is out in front by a small margin while the "harmony" ticket of Hershey and Slattery is in the lead in Cook county.

Invite Hobby Show Entries From Everyone

Some exhibitors have already entered their hobbies for the Parent-Teacher Association Hobby Show to be held at the North school Friday evening, April 19.

Maybe you think you don't have a hobby, but if you look at the list below perhaps you will find that you do.

Do you make or collect any of the following:

Bookbinding, paper crafts, and prints.

Weaving and basketry.

Knitting, crocheting, knotting.

Textile decoration.

Leather, metal, clay.

Wood working, carving, toys.

Photography, print making.

Scrapbooks.

Pictures.

Insects and other invertebrates.

Stones.

Maps.

Stamps.

Coins.

Firearms.

Fishing flies.

Glass, china or silver.

Dolls and other toys.

Antiques of any sort.

Buttons.

Postcards.

If your hobby is not included in the above it is nevertheless of interest as an exhibit and should be entered for the show.

Maybe you think your exhibit is too small to bring to a show, but the small exhibits are the ones that inspire others to start a hobby. Big exhibits are very interesting, but often discourage the beginner.

You might think your exhibit wouldn't be safe at a show, but every square foot of space at the Parent-Teacher association Hobby Show will be in charge of a responsible adult who will be on duty from the time the show opens until it closes.

Some people think that a hobby show, especially at a school, is only for children. Although there will be many exhibits by children at this hobby show, there will be even more by adults. Some of these are so unique and valuable that they would attract attention anywhere in the world.

IF YOU HAVE A HOBBY WON'T YOU FILL OUT THIS ENTRY BLANK AND SEND IT IN NOW?

Destroy Belief In Heaven and Crime Follows, Said Dr. Maier

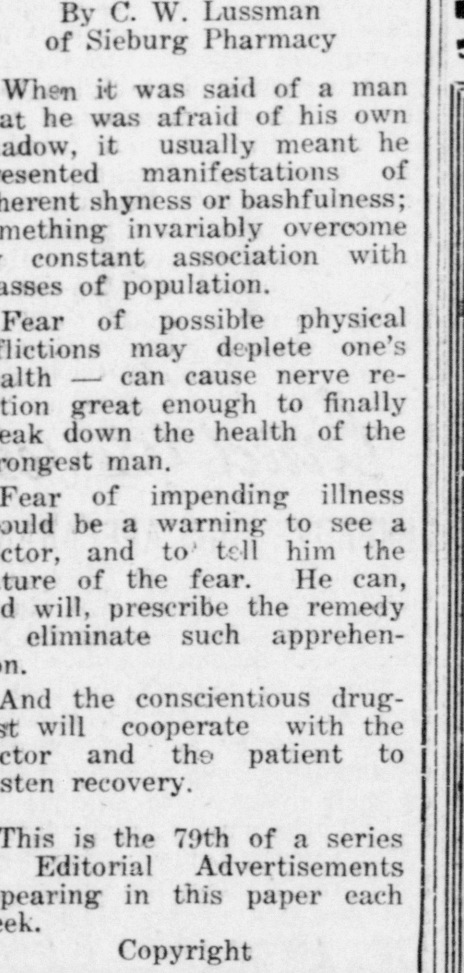

Aeclesiastical liberals have contributed to moral decline and a rising crime wave by destroying belief in heaven and hell, Dr. Walter A. Maier of Concordia Seminary declared Sunday in his coast-to-coast Lutheran Hour broadcast from St. Louis.
Despite the fact that the New Testament uses the word "heaven" and related terms many times, Dr. Maier added, many modern preachers seek to convince their people that the biblical heaven is merely a childish fantasy and substitute in its place a cheerless conviction of life after death which reduces the destiny of men to that of beasts.
"Whenever the clergy buries the truths of retribution after death to verbose discussions of war and government and politics," the theologian continued, "people lose their keen sense of right and wrong. By destroying the Scriptural promise of heaven and substituting false doctrines of an unconscious survival after death, they destroy the strong conviction of security that only the Scriptures offer."
Dr. Maier, whose correspondence with his radio audience has totaled more than 12,000 letters in a single week, said one of the questions most frequently asked him is: "Will we know our loved ones in heaven?" The radio evangelist announced the addition of stations in Venezuela and Columbia to the Lutheran Hour broadcast and reported the receipt of letters from listeners as far away as New Zealand.

FEAR
By C. W. Lussman
of Sieburg Pharmacy
When it was said of a man that he was afraid of his own shadow, it usually meant he presented manifestations of inherent shyness or bashfulness; something invariably overcome by constant association with masses of population.
Fear of possible physical afflictions may deplete one's health — can cause nerve reaction great enough to finally break down the health of the strongest man.
Fear of impending illness should be a warning to see a doctor, and to tell him the nature of the fear. He can, and will, prescribe the remedy to eliminate such apprehension.
And the conscientious druggist will cooperate with the doctor and the patient to hasten recovery.

EXTRA SPECIAL ROLLS

There's no question but that the refrigerator type rolls are a great convenience. Likewise there is no question but that rolls with mashed potatoes in them are particularly good eating.

Therefore when we include these mashed potatoes in a refrigerator roll recipe we can be mighty sure of something that's extra specially delicious, as well as convenient and easy to make. They'll be the kind of rolls that are long and fondly remembered by everyone who is ever fortunate enough to eat them at our homes.

POTATO REFRIGERATOR ROLLS

1 cake compressed yeast
1 1/2 cups lukewarm water (80° F.)
(potato water, if desired)
2/3 cup shortening (part butter for flavor)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt

1 cup lukewarm mashed potato
(no milk or seasoning added)
2 eggs (or 4 egg yolks plus 2 tsp. water)
About 7 cups sifted all-purpose flour

Crumble your yeast into a bowl. Add 1/2 cup of your lukewarm water. Cream the shortening in a mixing bowl, add the sugar and salt gradually and cream thoroughly. Blend in the mashed potato.

Next blend in the well beaten eggs into the yeast mixture. Now combine the yeast mixture and the creamed mixture. Add the remaining lukewarm water.

THE KIND OF POTATOES MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Now add most of the sifted flour gradually—mixing it in thoroughly. It's getting pretty stiff by this time, so you'll have to use your hand to work in the rest of the flour. You will have enough flour when the dough no longer sticks to the mixing bowl and it is possible to handle it. The kind of potato used makes a difference in the amount of flour needed. So don't worry if you find that you have to use as much as 7 1/2 cups of flour before you have your dough at the right consistency.

KNEAD ON LIGHTLY FLOURED BOARD

Knead this dough on a lightly floured board until it's smooth and elastic. Round the dough up and place it in a greased mixing bowl to rise. Cover it with a damp cloth to keep it from developing a top "crust". Keep the dough at 80 to 85° F. (it should always feel cool to the touch) until it has doubled its bulk. That will be about 2 hours.

TODAY'S ROLLS

Now punch this dough down. Take out the amount you want to make up right away into rolls for today. Let this dough for today's rolls rise again until about double in bulk. It will take about 45 minutes this time. Shape it into rolls and place them in a lightly greased baking pan. Cover them with a damp cloth, and allow them to rise until double in bulk—about 45 minutes. Now they are ready to bake for 15 to 18 minutes in a hot oven (425° F.).

TO KEEP DOUGH

In the meantime round up the dough that you are not using right away and return it to the greased bowl to put in the refrigerator. Rub the surface of this dough that is to be kept with soft butter. Cover it tightly with a double thickness of waxed paper, then place a damp cloth over that. Place it in the refrigerator until it is ready to use. The temperature of the refrigerator should be 50° F. or lower.

Dampen the cloth occasionally when it becomes dry, and if the dough rises, punch it down.

WHEN FRESH ROLLS ARE DESIRED

When fresh rolls are desired, remove the dough from the refrigerator, cut off the amount needed and return the rest to the refrigerator. Let the dough you have cut off stand on the mixing board in a warm room to "come back"—about 1 to 2 hours—before shaping it into rolls. Then shape your rolls and place them in the lightly greased baking pan. Proceed exactly as you did with the rolls you baked the day you made up the dough.

If you have any specific cooking problems, send a letter requesting information to Betty Crocker in care of this newspaper. You will receive a prompt, personal reply. Please enclose 3 cent stamp to cover postage.

China's 'Grand Old Man'

Li Hung Chang was known as the "Grand Old Man of China." He played the most important part in China's affairs for over 40 years, representing his government and extending its foreign relations with skill and wisdom. He held the highest official rank of any man below the emperor, first grand secretary of state. When, in 1899, he returned to China after a visit to the United States, he received the order of the Double Dragon, a distinction seldom conferred upon any one not a member of the royal family.

One Shot—One Elk

Frank Hunter, Wilbur, Wash., had never seen a wild elk, but he picked up his gun at the beginning of the hunting season. Within a few hours he sighted a magnificent bull elk. Raising his gun, he killed his giant quarry with one shot.

Correct Glasses

Ugly spectacles have gone the way of hoop-skirts and mustache cups. No longer need one shun glasses because they detract from appearance.

Nowadays, eyeglasses are designed like fine jewelry—delicately and gracefully. There are styles to blend with every shape of face—styles that are inconspicuous and becoming.

Come in and see these distinctive glasses. And if your eyes haven't been examined recently, do that now, too.

O.E.S. Notes

The regular meeting of the Arlington Heights Chapter 992, O. E. S., will be held Thursday evening, April 11, at the Presbyterian hall. There will be initiation with the regular officers filling the various stations.

Members having birthdays during April are requested to be present for escorting and presentation of a birthday gift.

A large attendance at this meeting is expected. Visitors are always welcome.

Fatback Plentiful

The fatback or menhaden is caught in greater numbers than any other fish off the East coast. In a good season as many as 750,000,000 will be taken, more than 150,000,000 off the coast of North Carolina. Occasionally schools pack an inlet so thick that boats cannot be navigated through them. Some years ago 11,000,000 menhaden, driven onto the beach by bluish, were picked up at Beaufort, N. C., in one day.

Cleanliness in Auto
Dirt allowed to collect on the floor of the driving compartment of a car may prove a danger. When the cowl ventilator is opened, the entering breezes will cause the dirt and dust to be blown about and a speck lighting in the driver's eye has been known to cause loss of control of the car. Cleanliness pays.

TO THE FRIDAY NIGHT BOYS

Here's to "Karsten's" bowling team
Their color's flying high;
Feed the anchor man more steam
The season's drawing nigh.
Don't let "Hartman's" steal your stuff
Or catch a fleeting glance;
Of all the grace and will to win
That "Red" has in his stance.
That "Wagner" gang I know are hot
And are apt to steal the show;
Just don't let "Kelly" have a drink,
They'll fade just like the snow.
A Ford's a Ford no matter how
Or when it travels forth;
But how in the heck can that team win
When their anchor man ain't
"Orth."

Sure Sadecky's team are plenty good
And will end close to the top;
If they keep on rolling strikes,
And "Louie" stays on "pop."
Oh! I most forgot the "Roller Mills,"
The team on a game or two;
But Harris is their nemesis,
Playing him they'll lose a few.
Again, good luck to all of you,
To the balcony that cheer;
To the many friends I gained in town,
While I was servin' "Eddie's" beer.
—Mar Johnson.

Palatine Adopts
Food Licenses
For Food Stores
The long talked about food licensing ordinance which has been before the Palatine village board for some months, was passed at the meeting Monday night.
The new food licensing ordinance provides a license of $5.00 per year for all stores and shops handling food stuffs and soft drinks.
An annual license of $20.00 per year is imposed on all retail food trucks which deliver food supplies within the village.
This new $20.00 annual license will take the place of the present higher peddlers license.
The board had a lengthy meeting at which all usual routine business was transacted and problems of the Village discussed.

Pre-Nuptial Party Held For Esther Koeppen

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Erber's home, 106 S. Dunton ave., was the scene of a party Sunday evening, March 31, in honor of their granddaughter, Miss Esther Koeppen, a bride to be. Mrs. Fred Kolze, of Bensenville and Miss Adeline Erber were hostess and committee on arrangements.

When the guests, twenty in number, arrived they were surprised and charmed by decorations and color scheme of green, yellow and white, artistically blended. A miniature altar with background of shrubs, vines and flowers, with a wedding party with figurines of pastor, bride and groom with attendants, real as life, was displayed, the handiwork of the bride elect's brother, Mr. Harold Koeppen. A shower of appropriate gifts, games of buncie and bingo with dainty refreshments furnished a fine program.

The friends are looking forward to May 4, the date when Miss Esther Koeppen of Des Plaines and Mr. Robert Kuhl of Arlington Heights will be united in marriage.

Election of Woman President Far Distant, Says Mrs. F.D.R.

"CAN a woman be President of the United States? Emphatically no, says Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in her article "Women in Politics" appearing in the April issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine. It will be a long time before any such eventuality will even become a possibility, according to the first lady.

"As things stand today, even if an emotional wave swept a woman into this office, her election would be valueless, as she could never hold her following long enough to put over her program," she says.

Mrs. Roosevelt feels that women have a long way to go in other fields, as well. Admitting the unfairness of such a condition, nevertheless, she points out that in many cases a woman to hold a certain type job must do that job better than any man would have to do it. That wages and salaries are usually lower for a woman than for a man for comparable work, she says, may in part be attributed to the women because they accept the situation and accept the lower wages.

Thorough awareness of political power has not as yet struck the majority of women, Mrs. Roosevelt goes on to say. However, the threat of something serious happening to homes and to children's lives may finally arouse women to form a solid front of political and economic protest.

Such a threat may eventually lead to a campaign against war. Such a drive, she feels, will most probably come from the women of the United States, since we are the last great nation at peace in the world. She continues:

"It is obvious that American women cannot do this alone; but throughout the world this might prove a unifying interest for women. When they get to the point of feeling that men's domination is ruining their homes, then they will use whatever weapons lie at hand.

"I think we in this country should be prepared for something of this kind. That is why I said that we must become more conscious of ourselves as women and of the force we might wield if we were ever to have a women's cause. We must be careful, however, not to try to wield this force for unimportant things. If we do, it will split up, for we are as individualistic as men in everyday affairs."

Arlington Heights Camp Fire Group One Of First In Chicago District

Mrs. Van der Vries Deserves Support of Republican Voters

The 7th senatorial district, and particularly New Trier township, is fortunate in having as its representative in the general assembly a legislator of such superior qualifications as those possessed by Bernice T. Van der Vries of Winnetka, a candidate in the April 9 Republican primaries for re-nomination.

During her six years' service at Springfield, Mrs. Van der Vries has made an enviable record. She has shown remarkable perception, foresight and political acumen, never being rushed into support of legislation until fully conversant with its provisions. She has consistently supported good bills and opposed bad bills. In this process, however, she has won the respect of both Democratic and Republican sides. The Legislative Voters' league says that "her voting record is good," and she has earned a reputation for being "active, energetic and capable."

Mrs. Van der Vries has ever been watchful over the interests of her district and the state as a whole. She has been especially interested in desirable school legislation and has been a strong opponent of bills designed to boost taxes. Believing that the solution of the unemployment problem is to be found only in encouraging industry, she has opposed bills to further hamper business. On this fine record she deserves the united support of 7th district Republicans.

Arthur W. Sprague of LaGrange, the other Republican representative from the 7th district, has also done excellent work in his first term as a legislator, and proved himself a capable and valuable member of the assembly. He is fully entitled to Republican support. —(From the Glencoe News)

Child Check-up Conference Tuesday

Regular check-ups by the family physician for the child who seems to be perfectly well are important in insuring his future health, the Arlington Heights Health committee said today. For mothers of well children less than two years old who have no family doctor, the committee will hold its regular conference next Tuesday, April 9 from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. at the Arlington Heights Health Center, in the Village hall, Wing and Vail sts.

Examinations will be given to the children of Dr. H. G. Reid, assisted by Mrs. Adele Pino. Mothers will be advised on problems of feeding and caring for their youngsters.

"Arlington Heights had one of the first six Camp Fire groups in the Chicago District," said Mrs. Belle Compere who was one of the past guardians honored at the Candle Lighting service held Sunday at the Methodist church by the Ocoasin and Chanyata Camp Fire girls. Mrs. Crawford was guardian of the first group established here and is still serving as a Camp Fire guardian in Chicago where she lives now.

Other guardians for whom candles were lighted were Mrs. J. Y. Beatty and Miss Laura McElhose. Each of these candles was extinguished by one of their own Camp Fire girls, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Hauff. Mrs. Daniel Crumlish responded when a candle was lighted for the Woman's club and Mrs. Rex Volz spoke in behalf of the Parent-Teacher association. The candles lighted for these two organizations were not extinguished since they will continue their support of Camp Fire as they have done in the past.

Ranks which mark the progress of girls in Camp Fire were awarded by Mrs. Belle Compere of the Chicago office.

The Trail Seekers rank given to those who have taken their first steps in this work was awarded to Carla Bloeker, Jean Freymuth, Jane Hildebrand, Rhoda Manley, Janet Nimmman, Barbara Mors, Audrey Sauer, Alberta Hines.

The rank of Wood Gatherer was given to Dorothy Williams, Anne Volz, Laurel Lawbaugh, Marian Helfers, Patricia Day, Jean Blackburn, Burneta Burns, Jean Meyer, Betty Davis.

The very difficult rank of Fire Maker was awarded for the first time in Arlington Heights to Nancy Crumlish, La Eta Gams, Rose Mary Heller, Lois Knaak, Nancy Kunkler, Joan Fate, Carl Peter, Pauline Russel, Nan Sommer and Geraldine Williams.

Rev. H. A. Kossack Presented Watch At Public Farewell

Saturday evening an open house was held in the Parish house of the Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights in honor of the Rev. Herman A. Kossack. Several hundred well wishers from all walks of life, young and old, Protestant and Catholic alike, called to pay their respects and to express their deep regret at the departure of one who has meant so much to the village. During the evening, Rev. Kossack was presented with a handsome gold wrist watch which had been purchased by his friends of the village in addition to a purse.

During the evening, Rev. Kossack was presented with a handsome gold wrist watch which had been purchased by his friends of the village in addition to a purse. Rev. Kossack told the members of the Arlington Heights Lions club Tuesday evening that he had been a member of the club thirteen years. He had just been presented a fountain pen by W. C. Lussman, vice president of the club, who voiced the regret of every member of the organization that Rev. Kossack would soon say "goodbye" to Arlington Heights.

Large Crowd Hears Farewell Sermon Sunday, the 14th anniversary of Rev. Kossack's first sermon in the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church, he preached his farewell sermon with a capacity attendance, which not only filled every pew of the church, but all of the available space in the adjoining Sunday school room and a part of the gymnasium. He said not goodbye, but "auf wiedersehen," and as the congregation filed past to bid him farewell there was scarcely a dry eye, a touching tribute to a beloved pastor and staunch friend.

Dr. Schimmel learned long ago that if he takes vacations he must grab them quickly. He is doing so this week. Accompanied by Mrs. Schimmel and Douglas he left by plane last week for Miami, Florida, expecting to return to Arlington this Saturday.

Girl Scout Unit To Be Organized In Prospect Heights

The Prospect Heights Girl Scout organization will hold its first meeting Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. John Burch, Elmhurst rd.

The Girl Scout unit is sponsored by the Wheeling Center school P.T.A. and the troop will include all girls from the ages of 10-18.

All girls living in and around Prospect Heights are invited to attend the organization meeting and to join and become charter members.

The Girl Scout program in the United States is more than twenty-five years old, and the membership has passed the half-million mark in a steady, natural growth. It is a recreational program whose activities center around the things girls like to do—sports and games, arts and crafts, homemaking, literature and dramatics, community life, music and dancing, health and safety, nature, the out-of-doors, and international friendship.

Miss Kathylene Wynn, troop leader, will be assisted by Mrs. John Burch, president elect of the local P.T.A. and a well rounded program of scout activities is in the making.

It is expected that the Troop will get away to a flying start at its organization meeting as a large number of girls have already signified their intentions of joining this great movement.

The regular monthly meeting of Wheeling Center P.T.A. will be held next Tuesday, April 9, commencing promptly at 2:00 p. m. Mr. Milton Bollman, assistant superintendent of schools of Cook county, will be the guest speaker.

The children of the lower grades will present a little play for the enjoyment of those present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Kelsey entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. Kaeser, formerly of Wheeling during the past week. The folks were returning from points south, including Cuba and Florida where Mr. Kaeser had the pleasure of landing a 167 pound tarpon.

Mrs. William Stegeman and her son, Marvin, enjoyed seeing "Gone With the Wind" one day last week.

Well, the Prospect Heights Improvement Association held their first annual dance last Saturday and judging from all reports everyone had a really grand time. There was a gathering of approximately 325 people, and some of the folks did not stay on account of the crowd being so large. If any one did not have a good time, then they had themselves to blame, and for those who did not attend they certainly missed a wonderful time. Many of the folks in the community hope it will be long until another affair of this kind will be sponsored by the association.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Steve J. Schramek who celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary on March 27 when they entertained Mrs. Schramek's mother and sisters, Mrs. G. A. Benson, Miss Edith Benson, and Mrs. Larson, and her husband, B. M. Larson, and son, Pershing, also a cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mattinson at dinner. The folks enjoyed a very pleasant evening and we hope they enjoy many more anniversaries.

Don't forget, folks, the primary election will be held April 9, with the polls opening at 6:00 a. m. and closing at 5:00 p. m. The polling station for Wheeling township is in the John Allison Service Station at the corner of Palatine and Milwaukee aves., just across from the Palwaukee Airport.

Misses Bertha and Berenice Schettko, sisters of Mrs. Dan Robertson were overnight guests Saturday, at the home of Dan and Emma. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bell, daughter and son-in-law and their little son, dropped in for the afternoon and evening with the Robertson family.

Another election that should interest all of the folks in this community is the school board election which will be held April 13, next Saturday. The election for this district will be held in the school building at Schoenbeck and Palatine rds. The hours for voting will be from 8:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. It should be of enough importance to the folks in this community to get out and vote and show some interest in our new school, and it is hoped that everyone will be out to vote that evening.

We regret that little Kermit Mueller, young son of the Ed. Muellers on Willow, was rushed to Elmhurst hospital last Monday night about 10:00 p. m., where an emergency operation for appendicitis was performed. Little Kermit is getting along very nicely at this time and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Daisy Derrig was home from school last week for a couple of days with a bad cold.

Rev. Frank Witmer, pastor of Bethesda Ev. Luth. church was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Burch on Elmhurst rd. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ptacek, of Chicago, aunt and uncle to the Wagner family, Marion ave., were week-end guests after the dance.

Sunday forenoon Mr. and Mrs. William Haney, and son, Billy Joe, sister and brother-in-law to Ann Nielsen, visited the folks for a short time before Jim and Ann left to enjoy Sunday dinner with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushie, in Oak Park.

Mr. Torreyson's mother is still very sick and although Mr. Torreyson drove down to visit with her Easter week-end, he drove down last week-end again to Davenport, Iowa, just for a short visit with her again. We certainly hope that she will improve real soon.

Congratulations to Mrs. Ruth Ledyard who celebrated her birthday last Sunday when she entertained fourteen of her relatives and friends, who one and all had a grand time.

Mrs. Arthur Brownell and Mrs. Angus Wynn attended the flower show at the Navy Pier on Tuesday, and both report a very enjoyable and interesting day.

A number of the ladies in the community who had been doing Red Cross work were guests Monday of the Mount Prospect Women's club at a dessert luncheon.

We are glad to report at this time that Mrs. Marie Lhotsky is recuperating very nicely at the Elmhurst hospital, and is now able to be up for a few hours each day. We certainly hope to see her home real soon, and well on the road to recovery.

Sunday afternoon Mr. John Heick and son, Jackie, of Antioch, surprised Ed. and Nan Rauen with a short visit. Wednesday afternoon Nan Rauen attended her club in Chicago at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Gunther.

St. James Young People's club is sponsoring a spring dance to be held next Thursday evening, April 11. Myrland Sanford's orchestra will furnish the music at the school hall and dancing will begin at 8:30.

Ed. Hrdlicka Finds He's 60 Years Young, So He Celebrates With Party

Ed. Hrdlicka, proprietor of Hrdlicka's Restaurant, Arlington Heights, celebrated his 60th birthday Saturday at the home of Wm. Linneman, 709 N. Vail st. Mr. Hrdlicka's birthday falls on Easter Sunday, but he was so busy serving his many patrons with an Easter feast that it was necessary to postpone his own holiday.

Fifty-five friends and relatives were on hand to congratulate him and wish him luck. Dancing, cards and a delicious luncheon at mid-night were the order of the evening.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Suster, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Suster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kellmer, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Gee and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Sobiech and family, all relatives from Denmark, Wis., and Mrs. Elmer Nelson from Racine, Wis.

Last week Mr. Hrdlicka was the special guest of the Des Plaines firemen, who held a party in his honor.

Ask Vote For Lyons--a Friend Of Home Rule

Palatine Staunch Republican Expresses Views on Governorship

by J. C. MEYER

Youth, experience and forthright courage make up the qualifications of Richard J. Lyons, candidate for governor in the Republican gubernatorial primary on April 9th, 1940.

He has had a successful career in both public and private life. The kind of a career which is available for any young man, with determination, under the opportunities afforded by the American philosophy of government. Today, at 44 years of age, in the prime of life, he stands out before the people of Illinois as a respected leader for all that is clean and wholesome in the administration of state affairs.

His ten year record in the Illinois state legislature was not only brilliant, but provided him with a knowledge of state affairs which is unequaled by any other candidate. He has always believed that the best government was that which was close to the people. For that reason he is against the tendency to centralize authority.

His record in the house shows a consistent stand against any attempt to limit the powers granted under our constitution to local municipalities. He is so much of the people that he has ingrained in his very being, a confidence in their ability to govern themselves, provided they are given an opportunity to unshackle the bureaucratic chains of the New Deal Philosophy of Planned economy and Planned society.

Mr. Lyons is of the firm conviction that our people today are made of the same stuff as that of the early pioneer who created a land of free opportunity. That just as the pioneer battled the wilderness of the early frontier to win political and economic security for themselves and their families, so can the people today battle the wilderness of economic chaos to win back their inherent right to carve out their own destiny of Political Freedom and economic stability as guaranteed under the Bill of Rights.

A sound Republican—There has never been a taint on his record of party loyalty.

A sound Republican, yes, because he believes that the Republican party given the breath of life by the American ideals of the immortal Lincoln, has the opportunity today to lead us back to a prosperous stability under an enlightened administration of constitutional government.

On April 9th, the Republican party has an opportunity to present to the people of Illinois as their candidate for Governor, a man with the rugged vitality of Youth; whose knowledge and intelligence together with his strength of character has stood the test of public service. A man who has the confidence of the people as demonstrated in the miraculous race for United States Senate against the entrenched forces of the Kelly-Nash machine. A man who understands the needs of the common man, because he is one of them.

To win in November—Vote for Richard J. Lyons.

VOTE FOR
Joseph T. Plunkett

Independent Democratic Candidate for Coroner of Cook County Not Controlled by the Bosses

James Moreland For Congress

James C. Moreland, who is candidate for congress from the 7th district is no stranger to the voters of Northwest Cook County. Nominated by the Republicans at the last primary, he was only defeated by his Democratic opponent by 3,000 votes. A reversal of 5 per cent of the vote would have resulted in his election by 3,700. Estimates of impartial observers indicate that there will be a reversal of more than 10 per cent in November, which should give Moreland a majority in November of 35,000.

He has proven himself to be one of the leading vote getting candidates in previous elections. He is opposed by Alex Loeffler of whom the Reiter Government association says:

"Loeffler is an old time tavern keeper and until recently owned a place called 'Al's Cafe' at 1623 North California avenue.

"Court records produced by the investigators indicated that Loeffler was twice seized on charges of violating state prohibition laws, once in 1923 and once in 1929. Both charges were dismissed. Louis D. Schreiber, city clerk, reported that Loeffler had held the liquor license for the tavern on California avenue from 1934 through 1938."

Loyal Service To Seventh District

When a candidate for a political office has been reelected for five consecutive times, it speaks well of the candidate and his record, as well as for the good judgment of voters.

Such is the record of Emmett McGrath, candidate for his sixth term as representative of the Seventh Senatorial District.

The reason Representative McGrath has been returned to office is: he uses his head when bills are to be acted upon in the Illinois legislature. Favoritism and interests of big business enterprises to put over certain legislative action to the detriment of the people in general, are against his principles. He makes a study of all bills and then votes upon them according to their merit. Pursuing this policy has established confidence among the voters in the Seventh Senatorial District, hence they send him back to be their spokesman in the State legislature.

When an applicant for a job in the commercial world is given an audience with a potential employer, the applicant always is asked: "What experience have you had?" No sane business man would hire an inexperienced person. So it is with political candidates. The people are his employers. He should have experience to carry out his work successfully. Representative McGrath has had 10 years experience, and is well qualified to be re-elected so that people living in the Seventh Senatorial District can be assured that their best interests alone will be advocated by him.

Representative McGrath presents his records—a good clean, honest record for scrutiny. His record is open to all to read. It is to the advantage of all voters living in this district to cast their vote for Representative McGrath. An X in front of his name will count as 3 votes.

The public, the press and the manufacturers' association as well as union labor organizations endorse the election of Representative McGrath.

Form Green Organization In Palatine

Independent Group "Not Insurgents But Loyal Republicans"

So many Palatine republicans have shown an interest in the candidacy of Dwight H. Green for governor, that a full fledged Green township organization has been the result.

The campaign committee of the new Green organization is publishing a half page endorsement of Mr. Green this week. This endorsement appears in this issue.

The new Green group, recognized by the Green headquarters and fully qualified to represent that popular candidate in Palatine township, has named a full township organization and is campaigning ardently for their candidate.

The Green organization is built around the following officers—Township chairman, E. P. Steinbrink; precinct captains, No. 1, Martin E. Plate, No. 2, Louis H. Freise, No. 3, Bert Sumer; No. 4, Malcolm Wade, No. 5, August M. Hackbarth; publicity director, T. C. Hart.

The spokesman for the new group in explaining why a Green organization was formed here said, "We feel that Dwight H. Green is the outstanding candidate in this primary. We believe that if Mr. Green is nominated, he can lead the republican party to victory in November."

"We feel that the Cook County Central committee made a big mistake in endorsing Dick Lyons in preference to Dwight H. Green and we believe they will recognize this fact after the primary."

"We are in no way 'insurgents,' but simply loyal republicans who are using our rights as free American citizens to vote and work for the man of our choice, who we all feel is the finest type of candidate that the republican party has put forward for many lean and weary years."

"We believe in Dwight H. Green and that's why we're for him. His nomination means a revitalized republican party in Cook county and in Illinois and we most heartily invite every voter who feels as we do to join with us and work for his nomination and election."

Promise Early Returns Of Delinquent Taxes To Local Governments

Country town mayors and presidents got direct information on operation of the county collector's office and distribution of the money to the taxing bodies at the meeting of the Suburban Area Association on Thursday noon.

The speaker was Guy Kelly, head bookkeeper of the collector's office. He said that his office was installing equipment which would be in operation by May 1 and by virtue of which it would be possible to give all of the 389 taxing bodies in the county a monthly statement and a check for their share of collections. A few years ago the villages and cities of the county were lucky to get their share in semi-annual payments.

Several other facts were brought out by questions by Association members. The county is holding large quantities of money that might be distributed to the towns when pending legal objections are cleared up. In many cases refunds were ordered on previous levies after most of the money had already been sent to the municipality. As a result the county is accumulating this money from that coming in for delinquent bills. The hope was unanimously expressed that the pre-adjudication bill would be passed by next legislature.

The costs of the quadrennial assessment has also resulted in a unique problem. Many of the very small tax bodies have found that their entire levy was not enough to meet their share of costs. It is a charge of 8 cents per piece of realty in the area covered by the taxing body.

South Barrington Landmark Church Burns To Ground

Fire of unknown cause destroyed the South Barrington church building on Penny road after midnight Tuesday. As the association owning the church is not a member of any rural fire league, no apparatus was called and spectators just watched the building burn.

No regular services have been held in the church for many years but an annual meeting is called every spring.

AT 17, AGE TELEGRAPHED IN A NEWS PAPER OFFICE, RICHARD J. LYONS OF LIBERTYVILLE, 45-YEAR OLD CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR, HAD PROGRESSED CREDITABLY FROM HIS START AS MESSENGER BOY AT AGE 11.

AT 21, DICK FOUND AN OPPORTUNITY TO GO WITH A BUILDING MATERIALS COMPANY AS SALESMAN. HIS SUCCESS WAS SOON COMING AND SO PRO- NOUNCED THAT AFTER A FEW MONTHS HE BECAME TERRITORIAL SALES MANAGER.

BUT AFTER HAVING MADE HIS MARK AS A YOUNG SALES EXECUTIVE, LYONS DEVELOPED A STRONG DESIRE TO GO INTO BUSINESS FOR HIMSELF. RESIGN- ING HIS POST AND GIVING UP A GOOD SALARY, HE OPENED A VILLAGE STORE.

THIS STORE WAS IN AREA (NOW MUNDE- EIN, ILL.). HE OPERATED IT SUCCESS- FULLY UNTIL 1924 WHEN HE MOVED TO LIBERTYVILLE, ENTERED THE REAL ESTATE BUSINESS. THIS EXPERIENCE GAVE HIM A KEEN UNDERSTANDING OF SMALL BUSINESS AND ENABLES HIM TO APPROACH THE BUSINESS-AND-GOVERN- MENT PROBLEM IN A CONSTRUCTIVE WAY.

Circus Jamboree Will Be A Masquerade And Hard Times Party

If you are looking for a good time, come to the Circus Jamboree at the Community gym Friday evening, April 12. The Jamboree will be a combination masquerade and hard times party and the fun will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Frank Ortel's orchestra. Those who prefer cards to dancing will play in the basement. Admission will be 25c a person and the proceeds will benefit the Wheeling Recreation club. Masks will be available at the hall for those who have not obtained one in advance, and provision will be made to permit you to sneak in on your friends unknown.

A door prize will be given away at the close of the evening and the drawing for the Deluxe Nesco Electric Roaster and Cabinet now on display in the window at the Wheeling State Bank will wind up the evening's program, a big night for a quarter.

11 Scouts Find 'Camping Out' Is A Lot of Fun

Eleven members of Troop 18 Boy Scouts of Wheeling were among the scouts who spent last weekend at Camp Dan Beard, going on Friday evening and returning home Sunday evening. The boys were accompanied by their scoutmaster, Mr. James Neagles Jr., excepting for a period on Saturday when Messrs. D. C. Morrison and F. S. Fatter, members of the troop committee took the scoutmasters place.

The boys shared responsibilities for conducting the camp, even taking their turns as chefs, and they didn't go home hungry. At least they shouldn't have, with a Sunday dinner menu including pork sausage, potatoes, spinach and rice pudding with raisins.

On Friday night little sleeping was done by any of the scouts, but Saturday night found them ready for a sound sleep which carried them right through reveille on Sunday morning.

As a result the boys were not awake early enough to attend Sunday school as they had planned, but instead they accompanied their scoutmaster to the morning church service.

Wheeling Board To Apply To WPA For Sewer

The April meeting of the Village Board took place Monday evening with all members present. Fines reported during the month were $35.00. The week of May 6 was designated as Clean-up week. Trucks will be provided for picking up rubbish on the mornings of Tuesday, May 7 and Friday, May 10.

Action was taken to raise the tavern license to $200.00 per year to compare with the county license outside of villages. With pressure still being brought to bear on the sewer question by the state, the board was reminded that only a short time remained to apply for W.P.A. aid and for such a project.

The board decided to authorize the firm of Suhr, Peterson, Berryman & Suhr to prepare a W.P.A. application for the construction of a sanitary sewer and disposal pit with the understanding that the village will not be obligated for any fees unless said project is approved by W.P.A. and is constructed in accordance therewith.

A complaint was presented to the board concerning careless driving by local motorists, especially in the use of the alleyway separating the Masonic hall and the bank building. The matter was referred to the police chief.

Are You Mothers Looking Out For The Health Of Your Child?

Whether or not a Child Health Station for Wheeling and the surrounding community is maintained will depend upon the mothers of small children.

The County Rural Welfare Department offers this service to communities where an average of twenty children are brought for examination monthly. There might easily be that number of young children benefit by the Health Station in Wheeling, if families in the village and farm community including surrounding school districts concerned themselves sufficiently in their children's health to bring them to the station.

The next meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon, April 10 from 1 to 3 p. m. Community minded people assisted by the Rural Public Health Dept. of the county help establish the station here. Mothers of children under six, from now on you are the only ones who can keep the station in operation.

Mr. Kuetzen decided to get back into the Chicago area, and after looking over several prospective businesses, he chose to locate in Wheeling, closing the deal with Mr. Schultz on Monday. Mr. Schultz will remain on duty long enough to acquaint Mr. Kuetzen with the business.

The Morrison family were guests of Mrs. J. A. Schminke and the Glatz's of Oak Park last Wednesday.

The annual election for school director will be held at the school on Saturday evening, April 13.

A spring concert will be presented by the First National Choral club of Chicago under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society on Thursday, May 2, at the community gym. Keep the date open and watch for further notice.

The Wheeling Achievement club was represented at the annual convention held in the Morrison Hotel by their president, Edward Welflin, their secretary, LaVerne Moeller and treasurer, Margaret Schmidt. Their teacher, Miss Bertha Keith, accompanied them. Arriving at the hotel early, they enjoyed the thrill of riding to the top of the forty-two story hotel and climbing the remaining flights of stairs to the observation platform where they got a real birds-eye view of the city. They also found the convention program very interesting, and returned home happy and enthusiastic about their experiences.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scanlon attended the wedding of their nephew, Mr. Robert Ortel, on Saturday, March 30, at St. Joseph's church, Wilmette.

Mrs. Wm. Laurance entertained her card club on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. Joseph Bellmore won first prize, Mrs. Henry Mayer took second, with the consolation prize going to Mrs. Emma Grewe.

Mrs. Edward Bellmore is a patient at the Evanston hospital, where she was operated on last Friday. We are pleased to note that she has been convalescing satisfactorily and expects to return to her home this week-end.

Wheeling was well represented at the presentation of the Senior class play at the high school auditorium of Arlington Heights last Friday evening. Arthur Miller Jr., a local member of the senior class, played the lead in the comedy entitled "Dulcy," which proved to be an outstanding success.

Wheeling Chapter O. E. S. are planning to hold a public card and bunco party in the Community gym on Friday evening, April 26. Watch for further announcement.

It Happened Here

Judging from Easter Sunday night's electrical disturbances, Jove, the Far-Darter, need only true his sights to give us a world black-out; he rained his lances on our puny wireless and radio stations, disrupted telegraph and telephone lines and must have caused air pilots, riding the beam, and depending on their electrical devices, some uneasy moments; to make the hour more weird, plumed warriors of the aurora danced above the horizon as though officiating at the sun god's incantations. . . . Miss P. said: "I got me an Easter hat with violets on it, just a wreath was all the hat was, and I got me my black satin made over, floor length, with a bright blue silk blouse, and I went to evening Church to the Baptist church and I got me a preacher beau, and," she added lugubriously, "I got me the snuffles and a cold in the head, seeing as the violets wasn't much hat." . . . Ann stopped dusting and looked up at us brightly. "David had to have a tooth out," she announced, cheerfully. "You see Dorothy had the toothache—oh, yes, awfully—a front tooth, too, and I'm afraid she's going to lose it, a pity to spoil her looks, and that David, he does hate so to go to the dentist; why, when he was a bit younger he jumped out of two dentist chairs—I never was so ashamed in my life—so this time I said to him, 'You stay in if we have to tie you.' Yes, his tooth is out, but Dorothy." We can't be bothered with almanacs and the weather man; we know that spring began on March 26 when our cardinal, absent all winter, returned and disputed with the sparrows for the seeds scattered at the foot of the back steps.

Your candle's light is dim, no doubt, But a candle shines when the sun goes out.

City Dwellers Now Moving To Farms, Late Survey Shows

Trend To Farming Disclosed by Quiz of Real Estate Men

The number of city dwellers thinking of moving to farm homes is greater than the farm families planning a change of residence, it was indicated from a survey revealed here today. Three out of four families applying to farm brokers to buy farms live in the city, it was shown. The survey, conducted by Free America magazine, by Elliott Taylor, housing and farm expert, disclosed that by far the biggest demand was for small farms, or for rural homes that could be bought at bargain prices.

Among city dwellers seeking farm homes only one in six said that they were buying land purely as an investment against threatened inflation, the other five-sixths intending to make either part-time or full-time productive use of the soil. Of the brokers, housing and farm expert, disclosed that by far the biggest demand was for small farms, or for rural homes that could be bought at bargain prices.

The survey was conducted by a questionnaire sent to real estate agencies from coast to coast representing a cross-section of 20,000 saleable properties and about 50,000 prospective buyers. The average size of small farm listed was 80 acres, but most families on their way back to the land were found to be seeking smaller acreage.

Cautious negotiation and a realistic rather than romantic approach was urged by the farm brokers, who commented freely on Free America's questionnaire. One wrote: "Advise prospective buyers not to read into farm advertisements qualities that are not there. . . don't expect a twenty-five acre, $800 farm to be located on a U. S. paved highway, close to town, with electricity, modern conveniences and buildings in the best of repair, unless the description includes these features." Another commented: "Many prospects think they should get possession of a 40 to 100 acre farm, stocked and equipped for a down payment of $500. This is only throwing $500 away, even if the owners would part with their property on such terms."

A majority of the farms sales reported last year amounted to $2,000 or less, the Taylor survey disclosed. Land prices varied greatly, but the average price for good plow land, unimproved, was from $47 to $109 per acre. The families buying land were about 26% "young couples just starting out" and 28% elderly people who intended to do light farming on a homestead basis. The remaining 46% were described as chiefly "middle-aged couples with children to help them farm."

Because heavy down payments are frequently considered an obstacle to farm purchase it was considered particularly interesting that most of the purchasers paid as much as 25% down in cash. Three-fourths of the brokers said they received up to one-third of the price in spot payment.

Seed Treatments Help Gardener To Beat Bad Weather

Something can now be done about the weather, or at least about the effects of bad weather on vegetable growing, according to Lee A. Somers, vegetable gardening extension specialist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Damping-off organisms, which thrive in poor growing weather and which kill seedlings, can be controlled by the use of chemical seed treatments, he said. The treatments are both inexpensive and easy to apply, he added.

Under cold and wet weather conditions such as frequently occur in March and April, garden seeds sown in hotbeds for later transplanting and garden crops sown in the field frequently fail to produce a satisfactory stand. Blame is first laid to the seed in the belief that it was old or weak and did not germinate well. Examination of the seeds, however, will often show that they germinated but that the seedlings have been killed by pre-emergence attack of damping-off organisms. Under favorable conditions this attack would not have occurred. Seed treatment therefore is really an insurance policy against unfavorable weather conditions.

"Cuprous oxide, which is sold under various trade names, is effective and can be used on a wide range of seeds, including lettuce, endive, Swiss chard, carrots, beets, muskmelons, cucumbers, watermelons, tomatoes, pepper, eggplant, spinach, squash and peas.

"Cabbage seed and seed of related crops, such as cauliflower, broccoli and kale, should not be treated with cuprous oxide, however. These may be treated with zinc oxide or with semesan. Semesan is the more effective of the two, but has the disadvantage of being washed away if heavy rains occur directly after the planting.

"Either cuprous oxide or zinc oxide should be applied according to the directions of the manufacturer.

"There is no known seed treatment for beans, onions, leek, or parsnips."

GARDEN TOPICS

by HAROLD O. KLOPP

THE LAWN

Spring is the season when most people think of their garden, and in all anxiety wait for the warm days when they can work out-of-doors. In the case of the lawn no such waiting is necessary. Most of the spring lawn work can be carried out while the weather is still too cold for other garden activities.

Lawn maintenance consists of fertilizing, topdressing and reseeded, rolling, watering, weeding and mowing.

Fertilizing a lawn is probably one of the most important steps in maintenance. A farmer, in order to insure good crops, applies fertilizer to his fields. Grass exhausts plant food just as other crops do, and in order to overcome this a complete fertilizer should be applied to the lawn at least once and preferably twice a year. Now is a good time to fertilize the lawn; the grass being dormant, there is no need to water in the plant food. At the same time the fertilizer will be present when the new growth starts.

In order to have rich dark green lawn it is necessary to fertilize, and now is the best time to do it. A light topdressing of good soil will help to improve the lawn. It fills in the holes, and encourages the old grass to spread out. Spread good soil lightly over the surface of the lawn, and work into the grass with the back of a rake or steel mat. Black is no indication of richness. Peat from lowlands, which has become entirely decomposed, is black and often sold as good rich soil. It should never be used alone, as it is apt to be more harmful than beneficial, but it should be incorporated with a good garden soil. After topdressing, sow seed to fill in bare and thin spots.

Rolling the lawn is necessary only in the spring of the year. The reason is to press the grass roots, which may have been heaved up by freezing and thawing, back into the ground.

The principle of watering is quite simple. A mere surface sprinkling is useless. In watering a lawn, soak the soil thoroughly, so that the ground is soaked to a depth of five or six inches.

When weeds appear, it is not necessary to remove the annual weeds, as constant cutting when the lawn is mowed will kill them. Perennial weeds should be cut out with a knife, and the bare spots reseeded.

Lawns should be mowed in accordance to the weather conditions. Set the mower about two inches high. Adjusting the height of the cutting is made by lowering or raising the roller on the mower. If you have any questions in regards to lawns or gardens address them to the editor of this paper.

Soybean Enamel New Product Of Illinois Farms

While Farm Chemurgic Bigwigs were meeting in Chicago last week to report progress in finding new industrial uses for products of the farm, Illinois farmers were painting interiors of their homes with enamel, the oil vehicle of which is 100 per cent soybean oil, the Illinois Agricultural Association reported in a statement to the Cook County Farm Bureau.

The new product was developed by technicians with Illinois Farm Supply Company, a farmer cooperative affiliated with the IAA, as a part of its program of expanding the use of Illinois crops.

In addition to being the first enamel ever perfected that contains no oil except soy oil, the enamel costs nearly 50 per cent less than similar quality products using more conventional oils, the statement said.

The farm supply cooperative pioneered in the manufacture of paints containing soy oil and distributed the first paint of this kind in 1931. Since then Illinois farmers have applied 1,400,000 gallons on their buildings.

Peoria Area Is Chosen For Food Order Stamp Plan

Two Illinois cities now are included in the food order stamp plan for the distribution of surplus agricultural commodities, the plan being extended to Peoria recently. First city in the state to receive the benefit of the plan last fall.

Actual operation of the program in Peoria is expected to begin within a month and will extend to three adjoining townships, Peoria, Richwoods and Limestone, according to information received by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture from Secretary of Agriculture, Henry A. Wallace.

The 1930 census gives the population of the Peoria area as 121,596, of whom 104,969 are in the city of Peoria. It is estimated that there are approximately 4,880 relief cases in the area, representing 12,829 individuals.

Extension home economics specialists of the college are furnishing detailed information on how persons benefiting from the plan can best utilize the surplus commodities.

Under the standard plan of stamp distribution to be used in the Peoria area, eligible families will be given an opportunity to buy orange-colored food stamps and to receive free blue surplus food stamps in the ratio of 50 cents' worth for each $1 worth of orange stamps purchased.

One group, receiving grocery orders as part of direct relief, will be eligible to receive the free blue surplus stamps without having to buy the orange stamps. Those in this group will get the blue surplus stamps on the basis of 50 cents' worth a week for each member of the family.

The orange stamps are used to continue the family's regular food purchases, while the free blue stamps are used to obtain specially designated surplus commodities as additions to the family's food supply.

Market Master Requests Help On Randolph Street

Let's Put A Little Paint On Our Trucks, Nilsen Tells Farmers

"If farmers who come to the Randolph Street Market will put a little paint on their trucks while they are not busy and cooperate in whatever parking arrangements are decided upon we will have photographers from all the papers in town down on the street and we will make it one of the best markets that can be found," stated Alfred Nilsen, market master from Chicago to a group of about 300 farmers at the Maine Township high school the evening of March 26. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Henry Eichholz, director in the Cook County Farm Bureau from Maine Township who assisted in getting the market master and the growers together.

After listening to the many difficulties that Mr. Nilsen had when he took the market over in the middle of July this past season the growers present had some appreciation of the changes that have been made on the street. First the fees that were collected on the street treasurer and the city has realized many times more in revenue than it did under the old regime. In spite of all kinds of advances from outside peddlers Mr. Nilsen has refused to allow any one but bona fide farmers the use of the streets and at 50c per truck.

Secondly the city ordinance has been enforced with reference to the street. The ordinance states that the market shall open at four in the morning and be closed at five in the evening. By common consent the market was closed at noon last year. Selling was faster because of these limited hours.

Mr. Nilsen gave a vivid account of how farmers often waited all night for the opening of the market the next morning. He made it very clear that this would not be permitted another year and that farmers who parked their trucks before buildings and left them there thereby created a fire hazard will have to suffer the consequences.

Quite a bit of interest was expressed for the revival of the evening market. Mr. Nilsen pointed out that it was not within his power to make the ordinances for the city of Chicago that they belonged to the Board of Aldermen and that the growers had every right in the world to go to the aldermen and have the ordinance changed if they could persuade them that that was the best thing. He made it clear that his business was to enforce whatever ordinance was in effect, and that both growers and the city should expect that as long as he was in office.

It was the general consensus of everyone that if the patrons of the market would make a more presentable appearance by having painted trucks, wearing cleaner clothes and keeping their persons more clean, packing a better package, that there would be a better market on Randolph Street than has been in the past. Trucks that come in during the night and stay all night and trade in the alley may expect more interference this coming year.

After the meeting it was pointed out by some individuals who had gone to the mayor's office to find out what the possibilities were for opening the market in the evening that the city had no intentions of reopening this street is therefore likely to create an unfriendly attitude on the part of the city towards the growers who do not happen to be residents of Chicago.

Mr. Nilsen has a committee of growers who are working with him on a survey to try and devise a better parking system than they have had in the past. He has sent out cards asking growers to cooperate by filling in certain information and mailing it to him. Growers who have not sent this card in are requested to do so in the near future. When these new parking rules are announced it is hoped that by far the largest majority of farmers going to the market will cooperate with the market master.

I.A.A. Publishes Voting Record Of Legislators

The April issue of the Illinois Agricultural Association RECORD just off the press contains the legislative record of downstate members of the last general assembly on important measures affecting agriculture, according to the Cook County Farm Bureau.

The top rating is EXCELLENT, which means that the legislator must have not only a satisfactory voting record but his general attitude throughout his legislative service must have been generally recognized as actively supporting the Association's legislative program. Such rating goes only to members who have served more than one two-year legislative period and have taken a favorable position on highly controversial legislative proposals.

First-term members to secure a VERY GOOD rating, must have a satisfactory voting record and must have actively supported the Association's legislative program. Members receiving a GOOD rating are worthy of careful and kindly consideration in comparison with.

"It is not our pleasure to have to use authority and police power in enforcing rules on this market. If everyone will go about their business and live up to the rules of the game everything will be easy and there will be very little interference with growers who come to the market to get the highest possible price for their goods," Mr. Nilsen said.

The meeting adjourned with a unanimous vote of confidence in Mr. Nilsen's administration and an appreciation of his coming out to meet the market's patrons, all of whom expend willingness to work towards better markets in Chicago for Cook county vegetable growers.

Mac Says-

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

I was given the surprise of my life at the basketball banquet at Palatine High School Friday night when Mr. John Power, representing the parents of the players, presented me with a fine Bulova wrist watch. The watch was engraved "P. T. H. S. — Coach Conference Champions — '39 and '40". I wish to take this opportunity of thanking all those persons who, in this generous way, have shown their confidence in me and their support of basketball policies. I have never received a gift that means as much to me as this one. It was the thrill of a lifetime.

Mentioned For State Offices

Mentioned prominently by a number of newspapers for the position to be left vacant by Porter, is Art Bergstrom, Athletic Director of the Libertyville High School. Porter is assistant manager of the Illinois State High School Athletic Association and has resigned to devote his full time to the National Federation. It is our opinion that the schools of Illinois would be making a wise choice should they select Bergstrom for the job. We think he has the qualifications necessary for the position. Another man mentioned as a strong possibility is Raymond Firebaugh of Danville. Fred Biester, Principal of Glenbard High School, is reported to be the leading candidate for the position of state manager to be left vacant by the resignation of C. W. Whitten.

Track Competition Starts

This week the schools of this vicinity will open their schedules of dual meets, weather being favorable. Arlington is due to test their strength at Bensenville Saturday against a Bison cinder squad which is rated highly. Palatine will be host to Leyden on Friday. Some indication of just what kind of material each school has to draw on will be determined from these meets.

Post Season Sports Taboo

A recent ruling of the state office makes it illegal for high school basketball or football players to take part on any team in any game after the official end of the season. For football the season ends the first week in December and for bas-

Oak Park Wins Their Own Relays For Sixth Time

Set New Record In Mile Event

Oak Park won their Tenth Annual Indoor Relays for the sixth time Saturday, scoring 42½ points to 29½ for Maine and 29 for Trier, the leading competitors. Proviso had 26, Morton and Evanston 23, Tilden 11, LaGrange 10, Naperville 8, and Urbana and Wheaton 6. Other schools in order of points were York, Highland Park, Lindbloom, Sullivan, Lane, Austin, Crystal Lake, Elgin, Englewood, Crane, and DuSable.

Only one record was broken as Clutterham of Lindbloom ran the mile in 4:37.8 to clip six-tenths of a second off the mark made by Culp of Englewood in 1938.

There seems to be very little doubt that Wilson of Crystal Lake will capture the mile at this year's Palatine Relays. The veteran Lake runner was clocked in 4:51 at Oak Park Saturday night in his first competition of the season. He placed third in the slowest of the two races run at this distance. Zerner of Libertyville was in the same race and was timed at 5:10.

Cipri of Palatine did not make as good time as at Naperville. His time was 5:13 due mainly to the fact that he ran too fast in the early laps of the race trying to stay with the leaders who as it turned out were on their way to a new meet record of 4:57. Casselberry of Lake Forest ran the mile in 5:23.

Field Injured

Field of Palatine was spiked severely as he took the first curve in the mile but kept on gamely. After the event he was given first aid and taken home to Palatine for medical attention. A deep four inch gash in the side of his foot will keep him out of action for another week.

Scouts Show Strength

Lake Forest as a team made the best showing of the Northeast schools at Oak Park but failed to score any points. Tarre failed at five foot six inches in the high jump and Bacon and Gyllenberg went out in the quarter finals of the 50 yard dash and high hurdles respectively. A 12 lap relay team of Hesterman, Bouchard, Quasey,erville's time in the same event and Shell ran in 3:21.4 while Nap was 3:13.5.

In the sprint medley relay Lake Forest and Crystal Lake of the Northeast conference and Palatine of the Northwest were entered. Lindenmeyer's quartet from Lake Forest which included McIntosh, Kerr, Bacon, and Jensen ran the event in 3:30.5. Palatine was timed at 3:31.9 with a team composed of Hollinger, Metz, Birks, and Senne. Crystal Lake ran in 3:36 with Connelly, W. Ross, Cowlin, and Frisch handling the baton in that order. Palatine's time in this event was 17 seconds faster than they made at Oak Park in 1938.

has two veteran hurriers in Busse and Brunkke and a very promising youngster in Stier. Last year this mound staff lost but one league game and that was after the title was clinched. With a veteran infield returning intact and a good outfielder it would be hard to select anyone but Heights. If Hayes' catching candidates develop the nine will be set. Chief threat to Arlington diamond supremacy is the strong right arm of a fellow named Boyk who hurled for Niles. He gave the Cards a couple of very tense afternoons last spring but Hayes' boys came through like champs and won on both occasions.

Too Many Flats

One Crystal Lake car taking boys to the Oak Park preliminaries did not get there in time for the boys to compete in the afternoon. A flat tire in Barrington was followed by another flat in Palatine and a shot putter who expected to toss the 12 pound ball about 45 feet was kept so busy changing tires that his event was finished when he finally arrived in Oak Park.

Pirates Open Track Schedule This Friday

McElroy Reports Improved Team Over Last Year

Palatine opens a heavy schedule of track meets Friday afternoon when Leyden of Franklin Park comes here. Last year the Pirates handed Leyden a rather decisive beating at Franklin Park. However, the Eagles have practically their entire team back again and as the Pirate squad is a veteran aggregation a close and interesting meet should result.

Palatine's entries in the running events will likely be Cipri and Trepus in the mile; Senne and Langhoff in the 800; Hollinger, Schroeder, and Schwolew in the 400; Hollinger, Senne, and Thieme in the 220; Fink, Birks, and Metz in the 100; Fink, Ehret, and Godknecht in the high hurdles; and McCombs, Fink, and Godknecht in the low hurdles. In the field events the best boys so far are Howes in the pole vault; Schroeder and Giescke in the high jump; Birks, Fink, and Langhoff in the broad jump; Snyder and Hahnfeldt in the shot; and Fink, Snyder, and Hahnfeldt in the discus.

Coach McElroy has about 50 boys engaging in track practice each day and expects to have a stronger team than last year when six out of eight dual meets were won. However, an even break would be satisfactory this year as Palatine has carried a much tougher lineup of opponents, Arlington, Lake Forest, and Niles are new on Palatine's dual schedule which also includes Glenview, Bensenville team, Barrington, Leyden, West Chicago, and Antioch.

Libertyville Has Eighty Tracksters

Nearly 80 boys are out for track at Libertyville high school preparing for the opening meet which is scheduled for April 9 on the home track with Niles townships as the competition. Coach Larry Crawford has had his boys doing a lot of indoor work on the cinder surfaced track in the gym. Probable star of the team is Glenn Bell, diminutive 440 man, who won the district last year and competed in the state meet. He is a favorite to win his event at the Palatine relays.

Clarence Zerner in the mile is another strong Wildcat runner. Zerner was timed in 5:10 at the Oak Park Relays Saturday night. LTHS Varsity, 1940: April 9—Niles Twp., here. April 23—At Waukegan. April 27—At Palatine Relays. May 3—Arlington, there. May 7—Leyden, here. May 11—District meet, Evans-ton. May 14—Lake Co. meet, Highland Park. May 17—Triangular meet, Libertyville-Lake Forest-Highland Park at Highland Park. May 18—State finals at Cham-paign. May 25—Northeast conference, at Niles.

Announce Third Annual Wheaton Relays, April 27

Wheaton will hold their Third Annual Relays on April 27 with a strong possibility of 30 schools entering the meet. The program arranged by Coach Bob Horsely includes 12 relays and six special events. The meet is divided into "A" and "B" classes with an enrollment of 1200 students the division line. Schools which have already indicated that they will attend are as follows:

Good Players are Made, Not Born —Dundee Coach

DeLacey Speaks At Palatine High School Basketball Banquet

Twenty-six students received basketball awards Friday evening at about 100 persons gathered at the Palatine high school gym for the annual banquet to honor members of the cage teams, the managers, and the cheerleaders.

Coach Eugene DeLacey of Dundee, famous for his outstanding teams, was the chief speaker of the evening. Mr. DeLacey spoke of the democracy in American sports and of the value derived by boys through participating in the popular sport of basketball. He emphasized the point that basketball players are made and not born and that a long period of training and experience is necessary before boys become accomplished players.

He told of some of the methods used in training themselves in basketball in the off season. The Dundee coach said that Palatine was one of the better teams they had encountered during the past season in their afternoon practice games. He challenged the boys to always try to make a better record than the team of the previous year.

Kenneth Menke, all-state guard of Dundee's state final team, accompanied DeLacey as a guest of honor.

Wipert a Fine Toastmaster

Wayne Wipert, assistant coach, made a fine impression by the manner in which he handled the position of toastmaster. Dr. Kueisser in a short talk pointed out that, all told, about 100 boys played basketball all season at Palatine. In addition to the varsity teams about 80 boys played on teams in the intra-mural league which had a 16 game schedule for each quintet.

Tom Hart, who spoke for Veterans' Row, said that his gang of cage fans had seen teams come and go since basketball was started here and with all due credit to former teams this year's five was in most respects the best of them all.

Tells of Palatine's First Teams Carl Herrmann, Wauconda's successful coach, spoke of basketball in Palatine at the time he played back in 1916-19 when the boys used the Stoker hall for a gym. He told the hardships connected with playing conditions at that time and about the changes in rules that have taken place. He concluded with the observation that it is a lot more fun to win than lose and that being the case the Palatine team had really enjoyed their season. Wauconda was the only team to whip the Pirates during the regular season. Herrmann's team finished just behind Palatine in second place.

A couple of fine talks were given by Mervin Fink, graduating member of the first team, and Hale Hildebrandt, head manager. Hildebrandt pointed out the steady increase in Palatine victories over the past four years and mentioned a few high points in the past season. Fink probably gave the finest student talk ever heard at a Palatine basketball banquet. In a very sincere and straightforward manner Fink stated his own personal feelings concerning the past season.

Letters Awarded

Coach McElroy presented 10 first team letters, eight lightweight awards and special letters to four cheerleaders and four managers. Heavyweight letters were given to Mervin Fink, Ray Hahnfeldt, Charles Snyder, Roy Deberger, Robert Hollinger, Richard Hildebrandt, Billy Ehret, John McCombs, Edwin Wiehrdt, and George Howes. The seven of these boys who were judged by a faculty committee as most valuable in winning the championship were given special emblems in addition to the letter. Fink probably gave the finest student talk ever heard at a Palatine basketball banquet. In a very sincere and straightforward manner Fink stated his own personal feelings concerning the past season.

The Home Economics department directed by Miss Kay Wiggins served one of its best dinners consisting of fruit cup, Swiss steak, mashed potatoes and brown gravy, peas, celery, jelly, olives, rolls, chocolate sundae, cookies, and coffee. The food and service was excellent.

Watch Presented to "Mac" At the close of the program John Power took the floor and announced that he was a ringer on the program but that he was going to say something as a representative of the parents of the basketball boys. He proceeded to present Coach McElroy with a beautiful Bulova curvex wrist watch appropriately engraved "Coach Conference Champions '39 and '40".

follows: B division — Wheaton, Highland Park, Downers Grove, Hinsdale, Glenbard, Riverside, West Aurora, Mattoon, Paris, and DeKalb; A division — New Trier, Evanston, Proviso, Morton, York, Crane, Tech, LaGrange, Joliet, Carl Schurz, East Aurora, Elgin, Decatur, Oak Park, Maine Township, and Waukegan. Last year the "A" winner was New Trier with Evanston the runner up. In the "B" division Wheaton was winner with Highland Park second.

Thirty Schools Invited To 8th Annual Palatine Relays

Final Rounds of Lutheran Cage Tourney Begins

Itasca and Glenview In Quarter Finals At Austin High, Friday

As the Lutheran Waltham League's Seventh annual basketball tournament enters its final rounds this week-end at Austin High in Chicago, three teams from the Northwest suburbs remain in the running for the championships. In the senior division, Itasca and Glenview, representative of the Lutheran League that played at Des Plaines during the winter season, play quarter final games this Friday, and if successful, go on to semi-final and final games on Saturday and Sunday. In the junior division, Arlington Heights is already in the semi-finals and plays Friday for the right to enter the finals.

The games remaining are as follows: Friday, April 5 7:00 p. m. (Jr.) Arlington vs. Windsor Pk., semi-final. 8:00 p. m. (girls), Hope vs. St. Matthew, semi-final. 9:00 p. m. (Sr.), Glenview vs. Villa Park, quarter-final. 10:00 p. m. (Sr.), Itasca vs. St. Andrews, quarter-final.

Saturday, April 6

7:00 p. m. (Jr.), Forest Pk. vs. St. Matthew, semi-final. 8:00 p. m. (Girls), Chi. Hts. vs. St. John, semi-final. 9:00 p. m. (Sr.), Herscher vs. winner of Itasca game. 10:00 p. m. (Sr.), St. James vs. winner of Glenview game.

Sunday, April 7

7:00 p. m. (Girls), finals. 8:00 p. m. (Jr.), finals. 9:00 p. m. (Sr.) 3rd place play-off. 10:00 p. m. (Sr.), finals. Glenview and Itasca qualified for the tournament by taking 1st and 2nd place respectively in the season's play at Des Plaines. To reach the semi-final bracket in the tournament, Itasca swamped Grand Crossing and Pilgrim of Chicago last week. However, St. Andrews, one of the strongest teams in Chicago, would prove plenty tough for Mensching, Kraegle, Shaw, and the rest of Coach Vern Landmeier's boys and a nip and tuck battle is in prospect.

Glenview, led by Art and Paul Meyer and "Big Stoop" Beuter, 6 ft. 7 in. center, eked out a one point win over Hope in their first game and are out to repeat, preferably by a more comfortable margin, against a tall, rangy Villa Park team. Arlington's Junior team has reached the semi-finals after disposing of Kankakee and Bethlehem of Chicago. Windsor Park, Arlington's next opponents, displayed plenty of class in defeating Evanston, so the local lads will have a real battle on their hands on Friday.

Austin high gym, in which all games are played, is located one block east and one north of the intersection of Central ave. and Washington blvd.

Entrants Limited To 650 Enrollments

Entry blanks, programs of events, and general information concerning the Eighth Annual Palatine Relays to be run April 27, has been sent out to about 30 schools in Northern Illinois having an enrollment under 650. The line between A and B divisions is at the 300 mark in enrollment. Some of the class B schools which have been invited to the meet are Antioch, Barrington, Bensenville, Geneva, Harlem of Rockford, Marengo, Harvard, McHenry, West Chicago, Winnebago, Oswego, and Northbrook.

Class A schools which have been sent invitations are Argo, Arlington, Batavia, Belvidere, Crystal Lake, Lake Forest, Leyden, Libertyville, Naperville, Niles Township, St. Charles, Woodstock, and Zion.

This year all the field events will be concluded in the morning leaving the relays and individual track events as the feature attraction. Two fine trophies have been purchased for the class winners and 146 medals will be awarded the boys on relay teams finishing in the first three positions. In each class and the boys finishing in the first five in the special events.

Points will count 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, in regular events and 10, 8, 6, 4, 2 in the relays. The relays will be the two mile, the medley, the Frosh-Soph 440, and the half mile. Schools will compete only against those of their own class in the relays. The individual events will be open competition. Naperville seems a sure repeater in the A division but in the B class it appears to be a wide open contest with Geneva, last year's champ, Harlem, Bensenville, and Palatine the leading contenders.

Pontiac Scorns Pleas Of 'Romantic Kids' For Test Driver Jobs

Although no inveterate movie-fan, Ben H. Anibal, Pontiac's chief engineer, knows almost immediately whenever Clark Gable, or Pat O'Brien, or Jimmy Cagney are cavorting on the Nation's screens in the romantic guise of test pilots or speed kings burning up the Indianapolis track for love and glory.

For soon after the showing of such a movie comes a stream of letters to Anibal's desk at Pontiac:

"Dear Sir:" they begin, "I am a boy 16 years old and am considered the fastest driver in town . . ."

"I, S. They don't get the job as a Pontiac test driver."

The General Motors Proving ground at Milford, Mich., where Pontiacs are literally driven to death in the hope of discovering imperfections in design or operation, appears to be considered a Foreign Legion by American youth, according to Anibal.

Pontiac employs 25 to 30 test drivers at Milford and speedhungry boys are not considered for the job, Anibal says. They drove around the proving grounds in eight hour tricks, night or day. Cars are driven at top speed hour after hour, others are barely creeping in first or second gear, others proceed a hundred yards and the brakes are jammed on, another hundred yards and the brakes again—hour after hour, day after day.

The average Pontiac test driver is in his thirties, is married, has a child and a home. The assignment may be "200 miles on the bricks," "eight hours in the hills" or any other of the test grounds' repertoire of tricks designed to torture a car into disclosing its innermost faults, if any.

"I'VE ADVISED A LOT OF PEOPLE TO BUY A PONTIAC!"

"A lot of people look at the size and quality of a Pontiac and decide without ever investigating that Pontiac's price is beyond their reach."

"They spot me in my big, new Pontiac and inquire how I can afford it. Few realize that Pontiac's price is right down with the lowest."

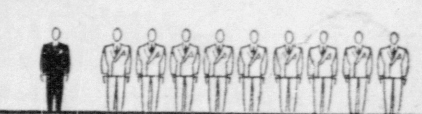

"I tell them to take a good look at a Pontiac price tag. It's an eye-opener. And that's why I'm driving a Pontiac."

"I never miss a chance to show off my Pontiac. There isn't a smoother engine on earth, and I'm getting three to four more miles a gallon."

IT'S AMAZING the impression of high-priced luxury the low-priced Pontiac has given to the American public. In a recent survey, nine out of ten people guessed the Pontiac price from $100 to $200 higher than the actual figure. And 49% of those who guessed so high said it was worth that difference!

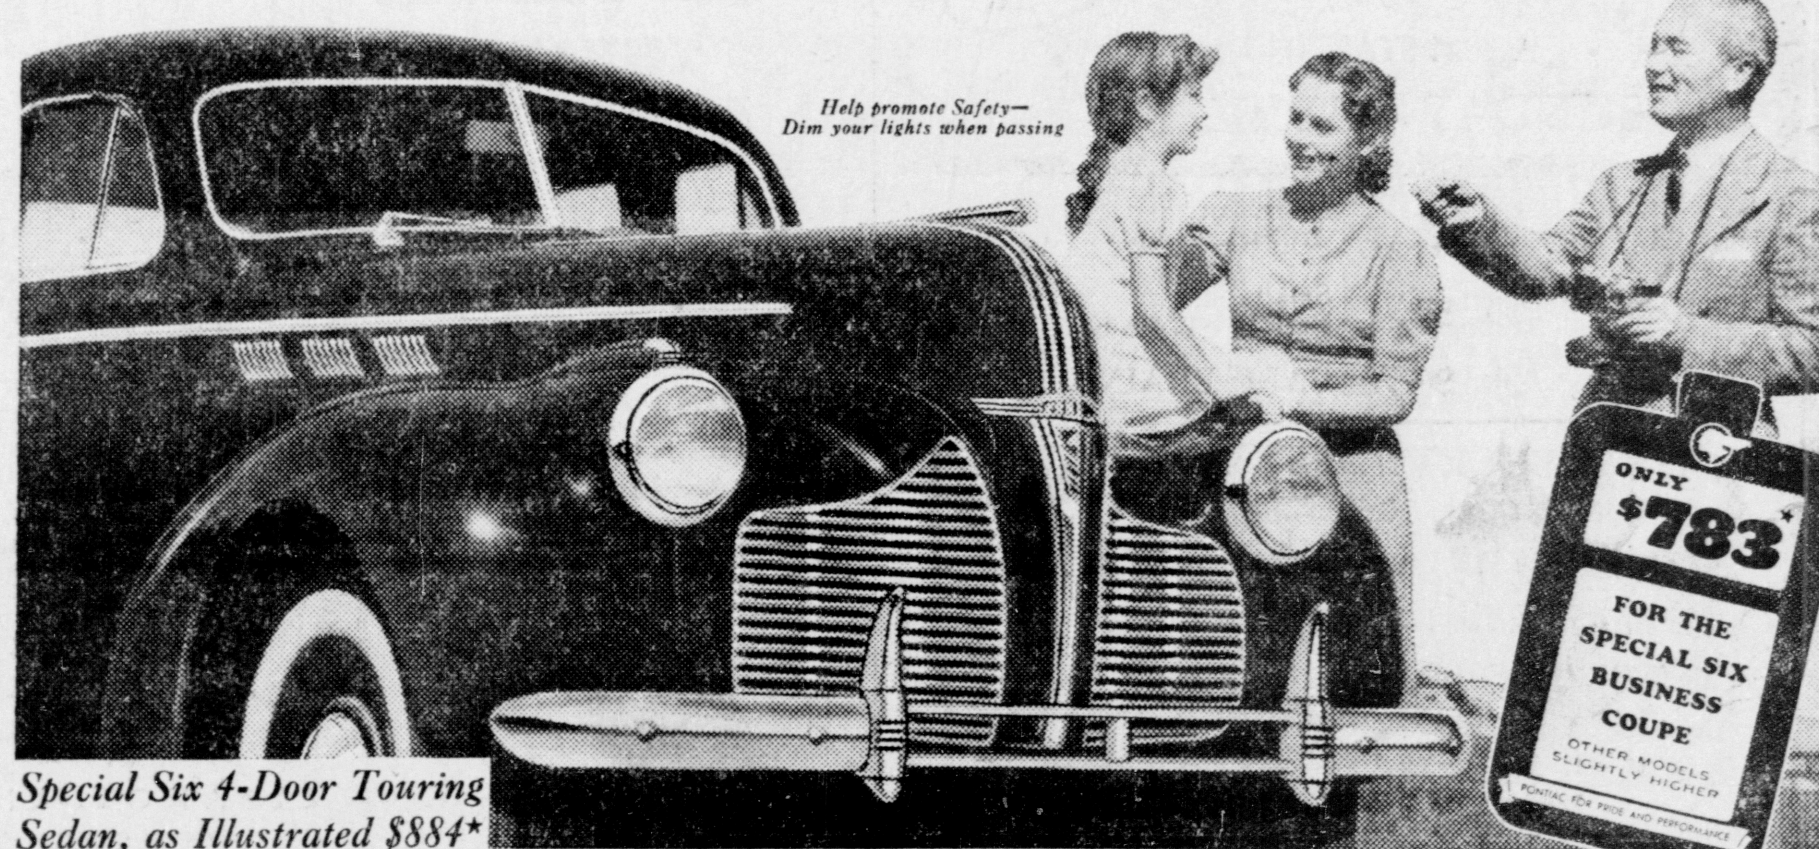

IT'S HUMAN NATURE to let your friends in on a good thing. That's why Pontiac owners are so busy advising their friends to buy the new 1940 Pontiac. They're pointing out that, at a price right down with the lowest, Pontiac delivers you a big, long-wheelbase car—wide-seated and roomy—furnished and finished in luxurious fashion—and powered by a power-packed engine that challenges the gasoline economy of the smallest cars.

Why postpone that big-car, quality-car thrill? What's to stop you, when a big, beautiful Pontiac costs so little?

Citizen's Committee Finds Heavy Judgement Facing Mount Prospect

Complete Audit Of Special Assessments Will Be Necessary

Action by owners of Mt. Prospect special assessment bonds against that village has raised a threat of many thousands of dollars in judgments. The actions are being taken on the assumption that payments of special assessments were not properly credited by a previous treasurer.

A citizen's committee, which was recently appointed, presented its report Tuesday evening to the village board and thru publication to the tax payers of the municipality. The report is self explanatory.

We, the undersigned, were appointed by the Village Board to make an investigation of the litigation that resulted in the entering of a judgment against the Village and to make known to the citizens the present legal and financial problems that are confronting the Village Board.

With this thought in mind, we will attempt to outline the difficulties as they have been presented to us, based on information received from reliable sources, which we believe to be correct.

This report is not made to criticize the acts or doings of the past or present members of the Board or the Village officials, or to cast an unfavorable reflection on the reputation of any individual or group of individuals; therefore, names of all parties concerned will be omitted.

Our first conference was with the Village Board, including the Village attorney, at which time we were advised by him concerning all of the litigation pending at this time, and we submit a summary of the suits pending, as outlined by the attorney:

Circuit Court case No. 39-C-8152. Albers vs. Village of Mount Prospect for the use of Charles H. Albers vs. Christian D. Busse and sureties. This is an action to collect the amount of judgment obtained for $11,416 obtained on January 25, 1937, in Circuit Court case 35-C-41538. I obtained leave to file my appearance for the Village of Mount Prospect, said petition to stand as an answer, where in it is set forth that said suit is not brought by and with the consent of the Village of Mount Prospect, but that the relief prayed for should be granted. This case is not at issue.

Total par of bonds involved $25,000. Net liability $11,416.

Superior Court of Cook County case No. 37-S-4082. Mary F. Howie, et al vs. Village of Mount Prospect. This action is predicated upon a large number of special assessment bonds and is at issue. A number of requests have been made of Judge Williams for reference, but over my objections thus far none have been made. In this case I filed a cross-complaint making the Treasurer and his sureties parties defendant; the cross-complaint was stricken and the cross-defendant dismissed out of the proceedings; it is from this order that an appeal is pending in the Appellate Court of Illinois, First District. Record, abstract and brief have been filed to the April 1940 term; and the time for the filing of brief by the former Treasurer and his sureties is running. I expect to file a reply brief if the situation warrants.

Estimated par of bonds involved approximately $100,000. Estimated liability $50,000.

Case No. 36-C-13946, L. L. Cooke, et al vs. Village of Mount Prospect, is predicated upon ten $500 bonds wherein is claimed approximately $3,400. This suit was filed in 1936 and was referred to Master Gorman. Some testimony has been taken but no report has been made. The attorney for the plaintiff has in a number of instances attempted to make some sort of settlement.

Total par of bonds involved $5,000. Estimated liability $3,400.

Case No. 38-C-9054, E. A. Weber vs. Village of Mount Prospect. This case was referred to Master Sheehan prior to the time that I filed my appearance therein. The Master has made a report finding that there is due the plaintiff $2,411.28. Objections filed to report have been overruled. I have just been served with notice that the matter of approving the Master's report will come on March 25, 1940, before Judge Dunne. These objections were ordered March 25, 1940, to stand as exceptions to the report; and the exceptions to the report have now been set for argument.

Total par of bonds involved $9,000. Estimated liability $2,411.28.

Case No. 39-S-299, Ohio National Life Insurance Company vs. Village of Mount Prospect. This action was predicated upon an appeal from Justice of the Peace for an accounting of moneys collected on one $1,000 bond. The matter was tried before Judge Allegretti on November 28, 1939, and judgment was entered against the Village for $225.88. This judgment has been included on the 1939-1940 appropriation. Total par of bonds involved $1,000. Liability $225.88.

Circuit Court case 38-C-6263, Charles H. Albers vs. Village of Mount Prospect. This was a mandamus proceeding to compel the Village to levy a tax for the sum of $11,416, judgment having been obtained for said sum in Circuit Court of Cook County case No. 35-C-41538. Writ of Mandamus was issued in this matter November 28, 1939. This judgment has been included on the 1939-1940 appropriation. As above — No. 1.

We were also advised by the Board that an audit of all of the 47 Special Assessment funds was under construction by Lybrand, Ross and Montgomery and that substantially all of the work was completed, but that the auditors refused to deliver the certified reports until payment of the agreed upon fee for their services in the amount of $750.00.

Two representatives of the committee, at the request of the Chairman, and the approval of the Board, interviewed Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery, regarding the audit reports. Our reception by the accountants was very cordial and, after a great deal of discussion, we learned that the time required for the completion of 47 certified reports of the various assessment funds, in summary form, would cost a sum far in excess of $750.00, and, after a brief analysis of the work involved, the committee feels they are justified in their estimates concerning the cost of the completion of the audits.

They submitted for our examination their time sheets, recording the time required in supervision and compilation of the two sample audits submitted to the Board, and on a per diem basis the cost was approximately $800.00.

While it is true that a substantial amount of this time was required for the establishment of certain routines and formulas, it was reported to us that the actual cost applicable to the two completed audits was $450.00. Obviously, the cost of completing the balance of the audits would be grossly in excess of the Village pocket book.

During the period of our investigation, we had heard certain reports that reflected unfavorably on the former Village attorney, and in order that we could look at him in a fair and equitable manner, we arranged a conference with him and the Village auditor, resulting in the production of legal papers evidencing that the imposition of the judgment on the Village was not exercised through default or nonappearance of counsel for the Village, but was agreed upon by counsel because at that time he was of the opinion that there was no defense against the charges that the Village Treasurer had commingled funds, and he advised the Board regarding this situation, informing them of the eventual result that is a judgment in the amount of $11,416.00, which was imposed on the Village under date of November 28, 1939.

We are pleased to report that the auditor advised us that at the present time the Village Treasurer is segregating collections applicable to payment of interest and principal on Special Assessment bonds, as required by statute, and that in his estimation the accounting records of the Village and methods used appear to be adequate, from an accounting standpoint.

We were also advised by the auditor that the preliminary work compiled by accountants for the Village, on the assessment bond accounts, was completed and that it is possible to determine from these work sheets data required in partially or wholly combating the pending lawsuits.

The Committee is informed that a meeting was held sometime ago at the Lions' club, composed of the mayor, the village trustees, the sureties and their attorney. At this meeting it was made known that the Albers' judgment together with the bonds involved in said suit could be purchased for the sum of $8,500.00. A suggestion was made that the practical solution of the Albers' judgment would be the purchase by the sureties of the judgment and the bonds involved. After some discussion, the sureties upon the advice of their attorney, refused to consider such a purchase.

At a meeting composed of a majority of the committee and the sureties and their attorney, the committee was advised, through the sureties' attorney, that the sureties had no intention of attempting to evade any liability there may be existing or arising from the execution by them of various bonds on Village officials. To support this statement, the attorney said that none of the assets of these individuals, or the sureties, had been conveyed and that they did not contemplate any such action.

The attorney for the sureties said that in his opinion the question of liability on the individual sureties was a matter of law and that he felt it would be to the benefit of both his clients and the Village, if possible, to make a compromise with the Village for the purchase of the bonds that were instrumental in bringing about the present litigation, and therefore a meeting was arranged with the Village officials for the purpose of effecting a plan.

The result of this meeting, so we are advised by the Village Administration, was that they declined consideration of any such plan.

As we have heretofore mentioned, it is not our desire to criticize nor is it our duty to recommend what action, if any, should be taken on behalf of the Village, in connection with the present litigation, but merely to state the facts as we have found them.

We trust the foregoing will be enlightening to the tax payer and that they will become sufficiently interested in matters of the Village to attend more frequently the monthly Village Board meetings.

Although the Committee is without power to make any recommendations, we have noted in the course of our investigation the decided lack of interest shown by the tax payers in civic affairs. It is entirely possible that this attitude may have been one of the contributing factors that brought about this condition. We make one suggestion in the nature of a recommendation, which might be a safeguard for the future, that is the formation of an association composed principally of property owners of this community, who would be interested in and who would perhaps assist in the administration of Village affairs. Thus, enabling a closer relationship and a greater understanding between Village officials and the tax payers.

Respectfully submitted,
HAROLD WILLSON,
Chairman

WE'RE talking here to those thousands who have not yet achieved a lifetime ambition. That is to say, they don't yet own a Buick.

We want to point out a few facts about the Buick SPECIAL pictured here—show how it swings wide the door on a golden opportunity.

Step into this sleek sweetheart. Your treadle foot touches off a trigger—quick Dynaflex straight-eight engine that's just about the smoothest thing that runs, thanks to micro-poised-balancing after assembly.

Swing through the gear changes and you find the same easy, finger-flick shifting as in the most costly Buick. And the same recoil-mounted Knee-Action soaking up bumps before they reach your hand on the steering wheel.

automatic cut-off, built-in automatic choke, oil-filter, high-capacity water pump—they're all there.

Here's the smart style, the blithe performance and the solid, substantial Buick quality of materials and workmanship that make this the car you've been looking forward to.

Yet the figures on the SPECIAL make you think it's a six instead of a husky straight-eight. Indeed, when you count in the included equipment, it costs no more than some cars with lower advertised prices.

So look into the Buick SPECIAL. See if this isn't the time to "step up" to the car you've always wanted.

Birth Film at Des Plaines Theatre Avoids Lecture Platform Story Technique

The significant and natural phenomenon of birth is the subject chosen by the American Committee on Maternal Welfare, Inc. for tender and reverent pictorialization in the full-length feature film, "The Birth of a Baby," which will open next Monday, April 8 at the Des Plaines Theatre.

In offering this widely discussed picture to the public, the American committee is primarily concerned with putting an end to the tip-toe attitude on child birth that has been partly responsible for the American mortality rate—one of the highest in the civilized world. At the outset of production the committee decided against a dry-as-dust technical presentation that would interest only medical groups. If the film was to gain currency and achieve its objective, it must preserve, above all, the essential drama of the phenomenon; and it must state its story in entertaining terms comprehensible to everyone.

As Public Education
It was decided, further, that the finished film must be above reproach from the physician's viewpoint, in order that it might have the fullest support from the profession.

To this end, a committee of gynecologists and obstetricians worked with the producer and director for three months.

As a result, physicians are converted to the cinema as a medium of public education. They voted almost unanimously in this direction at the American Medical Association convention in Atlantic City where the film had its premier before an audience of 4,000 persons—physicians, their families, and nurses.

The dramatic high spot of the picture is, of course, its epic climax, the actual birth of a child. But no climax is worthy of the term if proper motivation and dramatic suspense have not been sustained. The practical motion picture men saw to that, and the most compelling of their efforts is the recording on the sound track of the heart beat of the unborn child.

This was achieved by shielding a microphone with a wood mask into which had been set the ear-phones of a stethoscope. The other end of the instrument picked up the beats, a succession of palpitations, regular in their irregularity, that hold the listener breathless, wondering whether this tiny organ will succeed in beating out its next measure.

As a result, physicians are converted to the cinema as a medium of public education. They voted almost unanimously in this direction at the American Medical Association convention in Atlantic City where the film had its premier before an audience of 4,000 persons—physicians, their families, and nurses.

With the doctor working so as not to obstruct the camera's field of vision, the lens follows the process and records the first instinctive effort of the infant in this strange, new world—a reaching heavenward of its tiny arm as the travail of its mother sends it forth, at last, to a life of its own.

Best Seller As A Book, "The Light That Failed" Comes To Catlow

The motion picture treatment of Rudyard Kipling's greatest novel, "The Light That Failed," starring Ronald Colman, and featuring Walter Huston, Ida Lupino, Muriel Angelus, Dudley Digges and many others, opens Friday at the Catlow Theatre.

"The Light That Failed" is a powerful romance which takes place in London and the Sudan during the closing years of the last century. The book has been a best-seller for three generations. William A. Wellman directed the picture for Paramount.

Heralded as one of the outstanding romantic comedy dramas of the season, Columbia's new Howard Hawks production, "His Girl Friday," opens Sunday at the Catlow Theatre starring Cary Grant and Rosalind Russell with Ralph Bellamy. A smartly sophisticated story sparkling with pungent dialogue and dramatic situations, "His Girl Friday" is based upon a play by Ben Hecht and Chas. MacArthur.

A great many Hollywood productions provide the theme for a song, but it remained for a famous song, "South of the Border," to provide the theme for the Republic Gene Autry production of that name.

Don Ameche and Andrea Leeds as Stephen Foster and Jane McDowell in "Swanee River," the story of the great American troubadour, produced by 20th Century-Fox in Technicolor and coming to the Palatine Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday; also featured with "5 Grand and a Girl" double bill.

which comes to the Catlow Theatre on Tuesday.

The picture dramatizes the lyrics of "South of the Border," which is the top song in all radio and music sheet polls, as well as in record sales. Gene is the cowboy, with June Storey and Lupita Tovar as romantic interest.

Double featured on Tuesday with "South of the Border," is "Emergency Squad," with William Henry, Louise Campbell, Richard Denning and Robert Paige.

The Catlow Theatre presents "We Are Not Alone," starring Paul Muni, on Wednesday for one night only. Based on the novel by James Hilton, author of "Good-bye, Mr. Chips," it marks Muni's first modern, romantic role in several years. Jane Bryan, Flora Robson, Raymond Severn, Una O'Connor and a score of others appear in support of the star. Edmund Goulding directed and Max Steiner wrote the superb musical score which accompanies the film production.

'Swanee River' Screens Exciting Life Of Great Troubadour, Stephen Foster

The very heart of America is embodied in the familiar melodies of Stephen Collins Foster, inspirationally expressed in such songs as "The Old Folks at Home" (Swanee River), "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Oh! Susanna," "De Campment Races," "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair" and "Ring, Ring de Banjo" to mention but a few.

Stephen Foster was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. on the Fourth of July, 1826. Thirty-eight years later, alone and all but forgotten, he died in a shabby Bowery lodging house to which he had drifted. Yet today the name of Stephen Foster, the great American troubadour, is written imperishably in the nation's culture.

The picture comes to the Palatine theatre screen, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. It is co-featured with "Five Grand and a Girl." "Oh, Johnny, How You Can Love," Universal's new comedy, plays at the Palatine Theatre this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is said to combine romance, music and thrills in a fast moving story. It also presents for the first time on the screen, the song sensation

U. S. Public Rules Movie Censorship

A free press has been a bone of contention for a great many years in the United States, but its first cousin, free screen, is just now coming into prominence. Mary Hamman, in the April issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine, points out the importance of the moving picture in formation of public opinion and disseminating propaganda, good or bad.

The Hays code, by which producers must regulate their pictures, censors morals but not ideas and is the last word officially on what will and will not be acceptable to the public. Miss Hamman writes, however, the public's word is the most final, in that it controls the box office which is the vital, life blood of the industry.

America is singularly free from narrow censorship of political subjects. The government, industry, historical characters all have taken their lampooning as well as dignified praise. Such is not the case in European pictures. In many cases European films, not so strict morally as American films, are scrutinized closely for any hint of criticism of the country in which the pictures are made. Even American films are banned from different countries when they depict an unsatisfactory condition supposedly existing in those countries.

The American public is growing more and more interested in films of historical and social importance. Miss Hamman has found. Therefore, such pictures will continue to be made, she says. The handling of sex problems as dictated by the Hays office is relatively unimportant in view of the political freedom of an industry which is being run by eight million customers.

which gives the picture its name. "Brother Rat and a Baby," the comedy successor to last year's comedy success, "Brother Rat," is co-featured with the above picture.

Written by the same authors as the delightful original stage and screen play, John Monks, Jr. and Fred F. Finklehoffe, the film continues the adventures of a group of Virginia Military Institute cadets after their graduation.
